

Visiting Scholars<sup>1</sup>

Soohwam Bae (1/16/12 – 12/15/12) is a Planning and Legal Operations Specialist with the Bureau for Information Strategy at the Ministry of Public Administration & Security in Seoul, developing strategies regarding information security. He previously served as a national IT security technology and strategy researcher at the Institute of National Security Strategy for close to ten years. He holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from Youngnam University. While at UW Law, he will engage in comparative studies of law and public administration, and the protection of personal information. Shbae2121@gmail.com

Sung-Ho Bae (03/01/11-02/28/12) is an associate professor of law in the University of Yeungnam School of Law in Korea. He holds a Master of Laws and a Ph.D. in law from the University of Yeungnam. Dr. Bae will research the anticipatory repudiation of contract and mitigation duty. baesh@ynu.ac.kr

Sung-jun Bae (8/10/11-8/10/12) is a research professor with the Center for Dispute Resolution at Dankook University, and was a part time lecturer in Korea University and Kyonggi University. He previously served as diplomat for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade of Korea taking charge of Free Trade Agreement negotiation and East Asia trade dispute, and was awarded the honor prize from the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade of Korea. A graduate of the UW School of Law's LL.M. program in Asian and Global Business Law, he also holds a Bachelor of Business Management and Master of Law from Korea University, and a Ph.D. in Economics from the Zhejiang University in China. As a visiting scholar, Dr. Bae will further his research of investor-state dispute settlements in the international trade regime. bigjun@uw.edu; tigerzju570@gmail.com

Chengyu Bian (11/15/11 – 5/15/12) is an Assistant Lawyer at Jiuchongtian Law Firm. He also founded the Zhuqing Union Company to provide legal access to people living in the countryside. He holds a Bachelor degree in Law from East China University of Political Science and Law. Mr. Bian has published papers on the protection of internet freedoms and trademarks in China. While at UW Law, he will engage in comparative research on freedom of speech online in China and the United States, with the aim of helping central and local governments in China develop regulations that protect free speech. cybian@u.washington.edu; chengyubian@yahoo.cn

Chang Cai (5/20/11-5/19/12) is a professor at Hunan University Law School in Changsha, China, specializing in tort law. Dr. Cai holds a Ph.D. degree in Civil and Commercial Law from Wuhan University law School, as well as a Master of Laws degree in International Law from Hunan Normal University Law School. She is also a practicing attorney and the Deputy Secretary-General and Standing Director of the Civil & Commercial Law Society of Hunan Province. Dr. Cai will pursue a comparative research on torts of omission. caichang@uw.edu; caichang1998@163.com

Jin Woong Cheong (1/16/12 – 12/31/12) is a Prosecutor with the Seongnam District Prosecutors' Office, Korea, and has been serving as a prosecutor since 2000. He holds a LL.B. degree from Seoul National University, as well as completed the two year legal training program at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Supreme Court of Korea. As a prosecutor he oversees the investigation and prosecution of various financial crimes including tax evasion, corruption and theft of trade secrets. He will examine the protection of trade secrets in the United States and the Economic Espionage Act of 1966. jwchoengcr@yahoo.co.kr

Kuang-Chang Chien (10/1/11-9/30/12) is a judge at Taiwan Pingtung District Court, having previously served as a public prosecutor. He holds B.Law and LL.M. degrees from National Taipei University, as well as an LL.M. from the UW School of Law ('02). He has lectured at the Open University of Kaohsiung, teaching criminal procedure law and criminal evidence law. Judge Chien returns to the UW School of Law as part of our institutional partnership with the Judicial Yuan with the goal of reforming criminal evidentiary rules in Taiwan via comparative research of American evidence law. sim273@uw.edu , Sim273@yahoo.com

---

<sup>1</sup> Current as of January 2012.

Sungha Choi (8/1/11-7/31/12) is a Law Clerk with the Criminal Affairs Division of the Suwon District Court, Korea, and has served within the court system since 2002. He holds a Masters degree in Law from Konkuk University in Seoul, South Korea. Having had an administrative role in 2010 in the recent reform of Citizen's Participation in Criminal Trials, he plans to compare the jury system in American criminal trial procedures and citizen's participation in criminal trials in Korea. Csh9016@gmail.com

Hyung-Hyo Ha (03/01/12-08/31/12) is a Professor and former Dean of Korea University. Dr. Ha is currently serving as a Policy Advisor at the Ministry of Justice, and is also president of the Korean Society of European Law and the Korean Society of Labor Law. He specializes in civil law and labor law and has published several books on labor law. Dr. Ha will visit UW Law as part of our institutional partnership with Korea University School of Law, to conduct a research project entitled "Preventive and Prohibitory Injunctions for Torts." hrecht@korea.ac.kr

Kisup Han (8/1/11-1/31/12) is a court official with the Organization Management Division of the Supreme Court of Korea. He holds a Bachelor degree from University of Seoul, and has been serving as a court official in the Korean court system since 1997. He will examine U.S. court administration as well as real-estate law and bankruptcy proceedings. han7ks@uw.edu; Han01313@scourt.go.kr

Jocelyn Hendrickson (7/15/11-1/15/12) is a professor of Near Eastern Religions at Whitman College in Walla Walla WA, specializing in Islamic law and society in North Africa and in Muslim Spain. After earning Bachelor degrees in International Studies: Comparative Religion and in Near Eastern Languages and Civilization from UW, she earned a Masters degree in Peace and Conflict Studies from University of Ulster, and a Ph.D. in Religion from Emory University. She is a reviewer for the Islamic Law and Society journal and a founding member of the Spain-North Africa Project. Dr. Hendrickson will continue to develop her research on fatwas and the status of Muslims living as religious minorities under non-Muslim rule. hendrixj@uw.edu; hendrij@whitman.edu

Charlotte Pei-Ju Huang (9/1/11-8/31/12) is a judge at Taiwan Taidong District Court. She holds an LL.B. from National Taiwan University. Judge Huang will visit the UW Law School as part of our institutional partnership with the Judicial Yuan, to conduct research aimed at reforming Taiwan's trial system. She will study the US jury system and lay judges in Japan. cpjhuang@gmail.com

Hyejin Jang (9/1/11-8/31/12) is an attorney at Lee & Ko Law Firm in Seoul, Korea. She holds an LL.B. from Korea University. She will engage in comparative law research regarding the Korean and US judicial systems, specifically in regard to corporate laws. jhj0915@uw.edu; jhj@leeko.com

Sang Jo Jong (3/1/11-3/1/12) is a Professor of Law and Director of the Center for Law & Technology at Seoul National University. He holds LL.M. and PhD degrees from the London School of Economics. Dr. Jong previously taught comparative IP law at Georgetown Law center and at Duke Law School, and is currently a panel member of the WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center. Dr. Jong will visit the UW Law School as part of our institutional partnership with Seoul National University Law School and will collaborate with CASRIP colleagues in analyzing the interaction between technology, market and IP law in the field of broadcasting/telecommunication. sjjong@uw.edu; sjjong@snu.ac.kr

Eun Young Jung (8/15/11-2/20/12) is a presiding judge at Incheon District Court in South Korea, and has served as a judge and attorney at law in Korea for about 16 years. She holds a Bachelor of Laws from Hanyang University and an LL.M. degree from Georgetown, and is admitted to practice law in both Korea and New York. Judge Jung will research aviation law as well as ADR. ejung717@u.washington.edu; eyjung@scourt.go.kr

Sunhee Kim (02/01/12-01/31/13) is a medical doctor who holds an MA from Korea University's Department of Anesthesiology, where she is an adjunct professor. Dr. Kim is Chair of the Hansol Pain Clinic, and she is also the director of Malpractice Public Aid of Social Enterprise for the Indigenous. Dr. Kim will engage in comparative research regarding preventive measures for sexual crimes and protective measures for victims. anesunh@hotmail.com

Su Kyoung Kim (02/20/12-02/19/13) is a judge handling civil trials with the Seoul Western District Court. She is a graduate of Seoul National University (BA) and the Judicial Research and Training Institute. Judge Kim, a member of the International Human Rights Law Community, plans to research comparative international human rights at UW Law, in addition to alternative dispute resolution and U.S. Constitutional Law. temis73@scourt.go.kr

Ji Soo Lee (3/21/11-3/18/12) is a visiting professor with the Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security in Korea teaching international trade law. Dr. Lee previously served as manager for various IP law firms and legal counsel for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade. Dr. Lee holds an SJD from University of Wisconsin Madison, as well as several LL.M. degrees from Ewha Women's University, Korea, and the University of Wisconsin Madison. Dr. Lee's research project looks at copyright issues, particularly accepting artists' resale royalty rights. jisoolee@uw.edu; jsnature@yahoo.com

Yi Lu (3/15/11-3/15/12) is a Postdoctoral Research Associate with the Tax Department of The Institute of Finance and Trade Economics at the Chinese Academy of Social Science. She holds a Ph.D. in Economics from Renmin University of China. Dr. Lu has several publications focusing on taxation issues, including a monograph titled "Tax Planning for Senior Financial Planners. During her visit, she will examine the taxation of financial institutions and instruments. cutieyi@uw.edu

Kwangsam Moon (9/1/11-8/31/12) is a Professor and former Dean at Pusan National University School of Law, Korea. He holds LL.B., LL.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Seoul National University. After passing the Higher Civil Service Examination he served as a deputy director at the Ministry of Government Legislation and as chief superintendent at the National Police Agency. Dr. Moon has written several books on constitutional law in Korea, and was a visiting scholar at Paris I, Tokyo and Emory Universities. He will engage in comparative examination of political struggles between the executive and judicial branches, focusing on the Marshall, New Deal Era and Warren Courts. ksmoon@uw.edu ; ksmoon@pusan.ac.kr

Munkhsaikhan Odonkhoo (12/15/11-9/15/12) is a Foreign Research Associate at Nagoya University Graduate School of Law. Dr. Odonkhoo holds an LL.D. and LL.M. in Comparative Law from Nagoya University and an LL.B. from the National University of Mongolia. As a Visiting Scholar, Dr. Odonkhoo will further develop his comparative study of constitutional interpretation theories in the U.S. and Mongolia. munkh@u.washington.edu; Munkhsaikhan\_o@yahoo.com

Byoung-Cheol Oh (1/3/12-8/20/12) is a Professor at Yonsei University Law School, specializing in civil law, law and technology and telecommunication law. He holds LL.B. LL.M. and Ph.D. degrees in law from Yonsei University as well as Bachelor and Masters degrees in computer and IT Sciences from Chungbuk National University, where he's also completed the course work towards a Ph.D. in IT Science. Dr. Oh will visit the UW Law School as part of our institutional partnership with Yonsei Law School to examine the regulation of geo-location data and privacy concerns. wondoh@yonsei.ac.kr

Hiroshi Okazawa (7/1/11-6/30/12) has been a patent examiner with the Japan Patent Office since 2003. As a patent examiner, he has been in charge of the engine control of hybrid cars, combustion engines, and diesel engines. A graduate of the UW School of Law's IP LL.M. program (expected June 2011), he also holds a Master of Engineering and a Bachelor of Engineering from Kyoto University. As a visiting scholar, Mr. Okazawa will engage in comparative research of patent term extensions. hirosiok@uw.edu

Kenta Onodera (7/18/11-7/17/12) is a Judge with the Kushiro District and Family Court, Japan, primarily handling civil cases. He previously served on the Legislative Bureau of the House of Representatives. Judge Onodera holds an LL.B from Waseda University School of Law. He also passed the National Bar Examination and completed the year and a half program at the Legal Training Research Institute of the Supreme Court of Japan. His comparative research will examine civil procedure, focusing on class action and consumer bankruptcy. konodera@uw.edu; k.onodera@jade.plala.or.jp

Jeongku Park (8/1/11-7/31/12) is a professor of law at Sookmyung Women's University College of Law in Seoul, Korea, specializing in corporations law and antitrust law. He earned a Doctor of Laws from the University of Tuebingen, Germany, as well as LL.M. and LL.B. degrees from Korea University. He serves as a member of a government advisory committee for the Korea Fair Trade Commission (KFTC) and for the Korea Department of Justice. His research looks at legal problems and international regulation of the cross-border M&A in the global economy. jaypark@uw.edu ; jpark@sm.ac.kr

Simona Pinton (1/7/11-1/6/13) a researcher and professor of international and human rights law at the Universities of Venice and Padua, Italy, and recently taught a course on International Criminal Law at Wake Forest as a visiting professor. She holds a PhD in International Law from the University of Padua and an LLM in International Law from UC Berkeley. Dr Pinton served on the prosecutorial team for the UN Tribunal for the Genocide in Rwanda, Arusha, and Tanzania, and practiced law with the law firm of Grimaldi & Clifford Chance in Padua. She will engage in a comparative US-EU research on the intersection of IP rights and human rights. pintos@u.washington.edu; Simona.pinton@hotmail.com

Shinhwan Ryu (02/20/12-02/19/13) has been an attorney at Hankyul Hanul Law Firm in Seoul for over seven years, where he has handled a variety of cases such as libel, intellectual property rights, and insurance. He holds a BA and LL.M. from Seoul National University. Mr. Ryu, who is chairman of the Media Committee of the Korean Lawyers for a Democratic Society, intends to study comparative constitutional law and the protection of human rights while at UW. shryu@hllaw.co.kr

Kana Sasakura (9/12/11-9/11/12) is a professor of criminal law and criminal procedure at Konan University Law School, Kobe, Japan. She holds Ph.D. and M.A. degrees in Criminal Procedure from Hitotsubashi University, as well as an LL.B from the University of Tokyo. She is a productive scholar and has published articles dealing with the right of privacy and the principle of open hearings under Japanese constitutional law. Dr. Sasakura attended a UWLS program sponsored by the Innocent Project last summer and wants to deepen her knowledge on clinical law and procedure from the comparative law perspective. kanasskr@uw.edu ; kanasasakura@ybb.ne.jp

Jae Kweon Seo (8/10/11-8/10/12) is a researcher with the Korea Copyright Commission; his publications mostly focus on copyright issues. A graduate of the UW School of Law's IP LL.M. program, he also holds a Master of Laws in IP from Inha University School of Law. He has served as a Visiting Lecturer at Inha Law School, and is completing his doctoral dissertation. As a visiting scholar, Mr. Seo will further his comparative research of Fair Use doctrine in the digital era. jkseo77@uw.edu;

Jkseo77@gmail.com

Sung Sik Shin (8/21/11-8/20/12) is a Senior Public Prosecutor with the Seoul Eastern District Prosecutor's Office, Korea. He has been serving as a public prosecutor for over 13 years, focusing on special and sensitive criminal cases as well as financial crimes and corruption. Mr. Shin holds Bachelor and Masters degrees from Chun-Ang University in Seoul, as well as completed the two year legal training program at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Supreme Court of Korea. He has been a guest lecturer at the JRTI and also served as legal advisor to the Fair Trade Commission of Korea. His comparative research will focus on two areas of collaboration between the U.S. and Korea – the prosecution of recent maritime piracy cases and the extraterritorial criminal jurisdiction over military personnel. sungs4@uw.edu ; shinsspro@gmail.com

Jae Han Sim (8/1/11-7/31/12) is an associate professor of law in the University of Yeungnam School of Law in Korea, specializing in commercial law, antitrust law and consumer law. He holds an LL.B. from Korea University, an LL.M. from Trier University in Germany, and a Ph.D. in Law from Mannheim University in Germany. A prolific scholar, Dr. Sim will conduct a comparative research of anti-monopoly laws. jhs26@uw.edu ; simjh@ynu.ac.kr

Qian Wang (01/25/12-02/25/12) is a Professor at East China University of Political Science and Law, who specializes in intellectual property law. He holds several degrees, including an LL.M. from the University of Toronto and a Ph.D. from Peking University. Dr. Wang has served as an IP expert adviser for various government agencies and courts, and has also been utilized as an expert for the amendment of PRC copyright law. Dr. Wang's books include "Study on Copyright Protection in the Network Environment" and "Copyright Law in the Age of the Internet." Dr. Wang will visit UW as part of the UW Law Microsoft China/India collaboration, where he will meet with IP professors to discuss the design of textbooks for graduate students in addition to working on his research on the protection and regulation of technological measures employed in copyrighted works. Wangqian75@126.com

Junxian Wei (9/15/11-9/14/12) is a Senior Partner with Dacheng Law Offices in Beijing, in charge of the firm's private equity and venture capital funds practice. He holds Bachelor and Master degrees in Law from Peking University, as well as an LL.M. from Kyushu University. Mr. Wei will conduct a comparative analysis regarding the legal regulation on private investment funds. jxwei@uw.edu ;
Junxian.wei@dachenglaw.com

Jeffrey Wool (6/30/11-8/30/12; currently not in residence), JD, Columbia Law School, is a consultant with the London office of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP and serves as the Secretary General of the Aviation Working Group (AWG), a collaborative industry body for air-finance legal and regulatory issues. Having been involved in the development of the Cape Town Convention on International Interests in Mobile Equipment since its inception, he currently chairs the International Registry Advisory Board created under the Convention and works with governments on ratifying the Convention. He is also a special adviser to UNIDROIT on international equipment financing and has lectured on international commercial law at several universities. While at UW, he will develop the UWLS-Oxford Cape Town Convention Academic Project. jawool@uw.edu ; jeffrey.wool@awg.aero

Xueyin Xu (1/1/12-12/31/12) is an Associate Professor of Law at Xuzhou Normal University in China. He holds a Bachelor degree in Law from Soochow University, a Master degree in Public Administration from Nanjing University, and a Ph.D. in International Economic Law from East China University of Politics and Law. Dr. Xu researches and publishes in the areas of international trade and commercial law.

During his visit to UW Law, he will focus on examining the legal risks associated with international factory businesses. xuxueyin@u.washington.edu; Xuxueyin168@163.com

Kanako Yokoi (2/1/11-1/31/12) is an administrative lawyer with Kouno Hiroaki Patent Law Firm in Osaka, Japan. She previously served as a licensing and contract specialist at the legal and IP division of Kyocera Mita Corporation in Japan. A graduate of the UW School of Law's IP LL.M. program, she also holds a Bachelor and Master degrees in Law from Doshisha University. Ms. Yokoi returns to UWLS to examine patent infringements relate to technological developments in the network computing field.
kanako8@uw.edu ; kanakoyokoi@gmail.com