

Visiting Scholars<sup>1</sup>

Baisheng An (10/15/09-7/1/10; hosted by Prof. Winn) is the Deputy Director of the Division of Technical Regulations Department for WTO Affairs in the Ministry of Commerce (MOFCOM) of China. He holds a Ph.D in Economics from Renmin University of China and Post-Doctorate training in IP law from Fudan University Law School. Ann accomplished scholar and researcher, Dr. An is currently researching at the World Trade Institute in Berne, Switzerland on IPR and ICT standardization. anbaisheng@mofcom.gov.cn

Yong Chan Bae (1/1/09-12/31/09; hosted by Profs. Kang & Raigrodski) is a prosecutor with the Seoul Central District Prosecutor's Office in Korea, and has served as a prosecutor since 1998. He holds an LL.B from Seoul National University as well as completed the two-year program at the JRTI of the Korean Supreme Court and additional graduate studies at Seoul National University. Mr. Bae studies electronic monitoring of sex offenders. pocajr@naver.com

Amarsanaa Batbold (7/20/09-12/31/09; hosted by Prof. Taylor) is a professor of law at National University of Mongolia. He currently serves as a Foreign Research Associate at Nagoya University Graduate School of Law as well as maintains a private law practice. Dr. Amarsanaa holds an LL.B. from National University of Mongolia and a Doctor of Laws degree from Nagoya University. He is researching business organization law. amarsanaa\_b@lawschool.mn; bamrsnaa@uw.edu

Soo Ryang Byun (7/15/09-7/14/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is a Prosecutor with the Ansan Branch of Suwon District Prosecutor's Office in Korea. He holds a Bachelor degree from Seoul National University, as well as completed a two-year program at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Korean Supreme Court. In 2007, Mr. Byun was awarded The Most Excellent Prosecutors' Office Award in Environmental Crimes. He examines IP law, focusing on patent infringement cases. srbyun@spo.go.kr

Deqiang Chi (9/1/09-8/31/10; hosted by Prof. Zang) is a Lecturer of Law in Shandong University, China, teaching public international law, human rights law, international economic law and WTO law. Dr. Chi holds LL.M and Ph.D. degrees from Wuhan University, and previously practiced as an attorney and a senior manager of investment banking in several companies. The author of several publications on humanitarian intervention as well as corporate social responsibility, Dr. Chi examines the human rights responsibility of transnational corporations. chideqiang@sdu.edu.cn

Shaonan Du (9/1/09-12/31/09; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) has been serving as a patent examiner, and now as a patent application and protection advisor, in China's State Intellectual Property Office since 2000. He holds a bachelors degree on electric engineering from Zhengzhou University of Technology. Mr. Du studies IPR as part of the collaboration between CASRIP and SIPO. dushaonan@sipo.gov.cn

Frank Feulner (1/1/09-12/31/10; on leave; hosted by Prof. Taylor) is a Parliamentary Adviser with the U.N. Development Program in Jakarta, Indonesia. He holds a Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of London and a Diploma (Master) in Economics and Southeast Asian Area Studies from the University of Passau, Germany. Dr. Feulner held positions with the World Bank Institute, the German Technical Cooperation program, the Research Triangle Institute, and the National Democratic Institute. Dr. Feulner conducts a collaborative research on political reform in Indonesia. ffeulner@yahoo.de

---

<sup>1</sup> Current and confirmed as of October, 2009.

William Herbert (9/30/09-6/4/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is an attorney specializing in structuring complex IP and cross-border transactions. An alumnus of the UW Law School (JD, LL.M., '99), he is currently the principal in the Law Offices of William Herbert, Seattle, and previously practiced with Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP, Atlanta, Georgia, Lexwell Partners, Attorneys and Patent Attorneys, Tokyo, and Sankyo Co. Ltd. , Tokyo, Japan. He is admitted to the Bar in Washington, New York, and Georgia, and is proficient in spoken and written Japanese. As a CASRIP Fellow, he will research intellectual property and alternative dispute resolution. william.herbert@gmail.com

Chen-Chou Hsu (10/1/09-9/30/10; hosted by Prof. Zang) has been serving as a Judge with Taiwan Shin-Lin District Court since 2001. He holds LL.B. and LL.M. degrees from National Taiwan University, where he is currently pursuing an SJD degree. Judge Hsu has published in the area of both administrative law and evidence; his current research employs a comparative analysis of freedom of speech, particularly as it concerns the regulation of obscenity. chenchou@mail.judicial.gov.tw ; stevehsu62@gmail.com

Xianxiong Huang (1/20/10-1/19/11; hosted by Profs. Zang and Whiting) is a Professor of Law at Central South University, and a practicing attorney with the Tian Di Ren Law Firm, Hunan Province, China. He holds Bachelor, Master and Ph.D. degrees in Law from Xiangtan University. Dr. Huang's teaching and scholarship focus on administrative law and judicial review, and he will study the U.S. approach compared to China. hxxm2004@126.com

Jun Young Hwang (8/1/09-2/1/10; hosted by Prof. Kang) is a Court Officer with the Chuncheon District Court, Korea, and has served as a court official since 1995. He holds a LL.B. from Gangwon National University in Korea. As a court clerk, Mr. Hwang has observed the increase in lawsuits and litigation in Korea, and would like to conduct a comparative research of civil procedure and the court system in the U.S. youngjo1234@hanmail.net; youngjo1@scourt.go.kr

Woo Taek Hwang (9/10/09-9/9/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is the Director General of the Machinery, Metal & Construction Examination Bureau of the Korean IP Office. Mr. Hwang has served in KIPO (chief administrative patent judge, director of quality review department) and Patent Court (technical judge) since 1983. He holds Master and Bachelor degrees in Science and Engineering from the Korean Advanced Institute of Science and Technology and Ulsan University respectively. For over a decade Mr. Hwang has been participating in policy projects with USPTO, EPO and JPO, and has considerable expertise in patent law. He studies the relations between the Patent Law Treaty and the U.S. patent law system. hwt1957@gmail.com

Hyun Jin Jeon (7/10/09-7/9/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is an Administrative Patent Judge on the Intellectual Property Tribunal of the Korea IP Office, having served as a KIPO patent examiner and director since 1996. He holds a Bachelor degree from Yonsei University, a Master degree in IP Law from Chungnam National University, and completed a two-year program at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Korean Supreme Court. A certified patent attorney, Judge Jeon examines U.S. IP law, focusing his research on the patentability of newly emerging technologies. hyunjin.jeon@yahoo.com

Jin Ahm Ju (8/20/09-2/20/10; hosted by Profs. Kang & Eddy) is a Judge with the Seoul Central District Court, and has been on the bench since 2000. He holds an LL.B. from Korea National Open University College of Law, as well as completed the two-year training program at the JRTI of the Korean Supreme Court and additional two-year training at the National Tax College. He is a member of several research forums on Tax and Bankruptcy law. Judge Ju researches corporate reorganization and tax implication in bankruptcy proceedings. jujinahm@paran.com; jujinahm@scourt.go.kr;

Yuka Kaneko (3/15/09-3/14/2010; hosted by Profs. Eddy & Taylor) is a Professor at the Graduate School of International Cooperation Studies of Kobe University, specializing in law and development and in legal and judicial reform in Asia. She holds an LL.B. from Tokyo University, an LL.M. from Georgetown University Law Center, and an LL.D. from Kyushu University. A well accomplished scholar, Professor Kaneko has also served on numerous legal assistance projects. She will visit the UW Law School as part of our institutional partnership with Kobe University. She will examine judicial reform assistances in Asia by USAID, the World Bank and the JICA. ykaneko@kobe-u.ac.jp

Takeaki Kasahara (9/1/09-8/31/10; hosted by Prof. Taylor) is a professor of law at Kyushu University, Japan, specializing in corporate and commercial law. Dr. Kasahara holds LL.B, LL.M, and LL.D. degrees from the University of Tokyo. Already a prolific scholar on corporate and commercial law in Japan, he plans to examine those areas from a U.S. perspective. kasahara@law.kyushu-u.ac.jp

Masako Kikuchi (7/1/09-6/30/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is a patent examiner at the Interface Division of the Japan Patent Office in Tokyo, Japan. A graduate of UW School of Law's IP LL.M. program, she also holds a Bachelor in Electric Engineering and a Master in Science degrees from the University of Tokyo. During her continued studies here, Ms. Kikuchi examines how the overloaded USPTO, EPO and JPO assure quality of patent examination, as well as study the proposed Patent Reform Act of 2009. mk3142com@yahoo.co.jp ; masakk@uw.edu

In Sook Kim (12/15/09-12/14/10; hosted by Prof. Kang) is a Constitutional Research Officer of at the Constitutional Court of Korea, following several years of commercial legal practice in Seoul, Korea. She holds a Bachelor degree in Law from Yonsei University and an LL.M. degree from University of Virginia. She is a member of the Korean Bar and the NY Bar. Ms. Kim intends to conduct a comparative study of constitutional adjudication. isk@ccourt.go.kr

Young Sang Kim (3/1/2009-12/31/2009; hosted by Prof. Kang) is the Director of the Family Registration Division of the Supreme Court of Korea, overseeing the recent transition in Korea from a family based registration system to an individual identification registration system. He holds an LL.B. and a Master of Public Administration from Hanyang University in Seoul. Mr. Kim researches U.S. privacy protections of databases containing personal information. ysgkim@scourt.go.kr

Kwang Min Lee (7/1/09-6/30/10; hosted by Prof. Kang) is a Prosecutor and President of the Seoul Supreme Prosecutor's Office in Korea, and has been a public prosecutor for over 15 years. He holds an LL.B. degree from Korea University, as well as completed a two-year program at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Korean Supreme Court. In 1999, Mr. Lee was awarded The Most Excellent Prosecutor Prime Minister's Awards. He is studying the use of DNA evidence in criminal investigation and trials. dlals901@sop.go.kr

Pyungkeun Lee (8/20/09-2/20/10; hosted by Profs. Kang and Raigrodski) is a judge of Seoul Central District Court in the Republic of Korea, having previously served as a public prosecutor and practiced law as a private attorney. He holds a Master and Bachelor degrees in law from Seoul National University, as well as completed the two year training at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Korean Supreme Court. Judge Lee examines various aspects of criminal procedure and due process. leepyungkeun@gmail.com; pglee@scourt.go.kr

Rong Li (9/1/09-8/31/10; hosted by Prof. Zang) is an Associate Professor of Law at Central University for Nationalities, Beijing, China, having previously served as a judge for the Local Intermediate Court of Hebei Province. Dr. Li holds Master and Ph.D. degrees in Criminal Law from Peking University and has authored an influential book and several articles on judicial interpretation and criminal law. Dr. Li researches sentencing, as well as examines clinical legal education in law school. rlee0330@163.com

Jihu Liu (1/20/10-1/19/11; hosted by Prof. Zang) is a Professor and Vice President of the Law School in Central South University, as well as the Director of the Legal Aid Center. Dr. Liu also serves in leadership positions with the China Law Society and as a lawyer with the 21st Century Law Firm. He holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from Central China Normal University, a Master degree in Ethics from People's University of China, and a Ph.D. in Laws from Central South University. An expert on tax law, Dr. Liu will further his research on U.S. trust tax laws. jihuliu@163.com

Xingfu Lu (9/1/09-8/31/10; hosted by Profs. Wolcher and Raigrodski) is a Professor at Southwest University of Political Science and Law, Chongqing, China, from which he holds his LL.B., LL.M. and Ph.D (Philosophy of Law) degrees. An accomplished scholar, Professor Lu's research and scholarship focus on human rights, constitutional law and western philosophy of law. During his visit, Professor Lu will investigate suffrage as a method of securing civil liberties. luxingfu@126.com

Xinnian Lu (9/1/09-12/31/09; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is the Vice Director of IT Service at the China Patent Information Center of the State Intellectual Property Office. He has been working in the field of automation of patent examination and processing procedures since 1998. He holds Bachelor and Master degrees in engineering from Northeast University, Shenyang, and the University of Science and Technology of Beijing respectively. Mr. Lu will examine legal issues related to online patent procedures as part of the collaboration between CASRIP and SIPO. luxinnian@sipo.gov.cn

Annabelle Mooney (2/1/10-4/1/10; hosted by Prof. Wolcher) is a Senior Lecturer in the fields of linguistic and gender studies at the University of Roehampton in London. A well accomplished socio-linguist, her scholarship offer discourse critique of rape and pornography, HIV narratives, and the rhetoric of religious cults. She holds Bachelor and Master degrees from Australian National University, an LL.B. from University of London and a Ph.D. from Glasgow University. At the UW, Dr. Mooney will focus on her current research of the language of human rights. A.mooney@roehampton.ac.uk

Manabu Niki (7/1/09-6/30/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is a patent examiner and policy researcher at the Japan Patent Office in Tokyo, Japan. A graduate of UW School of Law's IP LL.M. program, he also holds Bachelor and Master degrees in Engineering from the University of Tokyo. During his continued studies here, Mr. Niki researches patent trolls, as well as examines the relation between IPR and innovation. niki\_ryogoku@yahoo.co.jp

Yohei Noda (3/29/09-3/26/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) a Patent Examiner for the Japan Patent Office in Tokyo. He holds Bachelor and Master degrees from the University of Tokyo. Mr. Noda is interested in examining various patentability aspects in relation to nuclear-power or radiant-ray technologies transfer. noda\_yohei@yahoo.co.jp

InBong Noh (8/1/09-1/31/10; hosted by Prof. Kang) is a Court Clerk with the Ansan Branch of the Suwon District Court, Korea. He holds a Bachelor and Master of Law degree from Seoul National University. Mr. Noh is particularly interested in researching medical malpractice litigation in the U.S., focusing on the scope of discovery in relation to medical records as well as best practices in medical care. inbongnoh@hanmail.net; inbong@uw.edu

Masatoshi Otsuka (7/1/09-6/30/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is a trademark examiner with the Japan Patent Office, having served in various position at JPO since 2002, including the Legislative Affairs Office, the IP Information Promotion Department and the National Center for Industrial Property Information and Training. He holds an LL.B. from Senshu University, Tokyo, Japan. He examines IP harmonization and comparative trademark law. macymarch2006@yahoo.co.jp; otsuka-masatoshi@jpo.go.jp

Duckhee Park (9/1/09-2/28/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is an attorney and Adjunct Professor at Chonnam National University School of Law, Gwangju, Korea, previously serving as a judge for four years. He holds an LL.B. from Chonnam National University, as well as completed a two-year program at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Korean Supreme Court. Mr. Park. Studies IP law and theory, focusing on the intersection of IP and the internet. duckheepark@hanmail.net

Lawrence Repeta (6/16/2009-6/30/2010; hosted by Prof. Taylor) of Omiya Law School, Japan, and 2008-09 Garvey Schubert Barer Visiting Professor in Asian Law continues his joint research with Asian Law Center faculty. An alumnus of the Law School, Professor Repeta has practiced law and conducted research in the United States and Japan since 1979. He is also the founding director of Information Clearinghouse Japan, an NGO devoted to promoting open government in Japan. The focus of his advocacy and research is transparency in government, and he is an expert on matters of privacy, security and freedom of information. repeta@u.washington.edu

Jeong-won Ryu (12/20/09-12/19/10; hosted by Prof. Kang) is a Prosecutor with the Seoul Central District Prosecutor's Office in Korea. He holds an LL.B. degree from Seoul National University, as well as completed a two-year program at the Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Korean Supreme Court. He will examine U.S. criminal procedure and IP law and theory, focusing on patent infringement cases. ryu271@spo.go.kr

Lutforahman Saeed (9/21/09-12/31/09; hosted by Profs. Eddy & Taylor) is a professor on the Shari'a (Islamic Law) faculty at Kabul University in Kabul, Afghanistan. Specializing in Islamic Studies, philosophy and comparative religions, Professor Saeed returns to the UW Law School to continue his studies through the Afghan Legal Educators Program. He speaks Pashto, Dari, Arabic, Urdu and English and works as a legal advisor and interpreter for the US Army. He is a member of the independent Bar Association of Afghanistan. saeed2@uw.edu

Hua Shao (1/10/09-1/9/10; hosted by Profs. Zang & Whiting) is a professor of law at Central South University, Hunan Province, China, where she has also earned her LL.B. Dr. Shao also holds an LL.M from Xiangtan University and a Ph.D. from Wuhan University, PRC. She is interested in dispute resolution institutions as well as law and sociology, and is researching class action and ADR in the U.S. tiedaohua@126.com

Akira Tanai (7/10/08-7/09/10; hosted by Prof. Taylor) is a Judge with the Osaka District Court, Japan, primarily handling civil administrative and bankruptcy cases. After graduating with an LL.B from the University of Kyoto, Judge Tanai passed the National Bar Examination and completed the year and a half program at the Legal Training Research Institute of the Supreme Court of Japan. He researches U.S. civil procedure and ADR, as well as examines the U.S. jury system. akiratanai@hotmail.co.jp

Bei Wang (9/1/09-8/31/10; hosted by Prof. Zang) is a Professor and Dean of the Department of Law of the School of Politics and Economics at Shannxi Normal University. She holds bachelor and Master Degrees from Shannxi Normal University, and earned her Ph.D. in Law from Peking University, Beijing, China, with a specialty in jurisprudence. Her research and scholarship seek to understand the relationship between law and morality. Beiyiwang2002@163.com

Feiyue Wang (1/10/09-1/9/10; hosted by Profs. Zang & Whiting) is a professor of law at Central South University, Hunan Province, PRC. Dr. Wang holds an LL.B. from Xiangtan University and an LL.M and Ph.D. from Peking University, where he specialized in criminal law. He has previously served as a judge in the Criminal Tribunal of the Changsha Intermediate People's Court. He will conduct a comparative research of sentencing guidelines in the U.S. and in China. wfeiyue2005@163.com

Zhiyong Wang (4/30/09-4/29/10; hosted by Prof. Takenaka) is a Senior Law Clerk for the Honorable Justice Liu Jiacheng of the Supreme People's Court of China. He holds LL.M degrees from both University of Hawaii and Yokohama National University, Japan, as well as a LL.B from Jilin University, China. As a CASRIP research fellow, Mr. Wang conducts a comparative research of criminal enforcement of IPR in the U.S., Japan and China. wangzhy@court.gov.cn

Xiusong Xing (9/1/09-12/1/09; hosted by Prof. Zang) is a Partner with Global Law Office specializing in international commercial arbitration. He is currently serving as an arbitrator in an ICC arbitration and a SCC arbitration (Stockholm Chamber of Commerce Arbitration Institute). Mr. Xing holds a Bachelor degree from Peking University and a Master in Laws degree from China University of Political Science and Law. The author of several publications on international trade and arbitration, he is researching discovery and on court assistance in international arbitration proceedings. xingxs@globalawoffice.com.cn

Jie Yang (9/20/2009-12/20/2010; hosted by Prof. Zang) is the Director of the Anti-monopoly Legislative Affairs Division within the Anti-monopoly and Anti-unfair Competition Enforcement Bureau of China's State Administration for Industry and Commerce (SAIC). She holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from Beijing University and a Master of Laws degree from Renmin University, China. Director Yang had a significant role in the drafting and amending of China's Anti-monopoly and Anti-unfair competition laws. She intends to pursue a comparative research in those areas. yangj@saic.gov.cn

Seughee Yoon (3/1/09-2/28/10; hosted by Prof. Kang) is a founding partner with the international law firm of Cho Yoon & Lee, Seoul, Korea, specializing in maritime insurance, banking and financial transactions. She holds an LL.B from Ewha Women's University, Korea, as well as an LL.M in Admiralty from Tulane University, where she was a Harry F. Stiles Scholar. She is researching maritime law. shyoon@cyllaw.co.kr

Qikun Zhang (9/1/09-8/31/10; hosted by Prof. Zang) is Vice Dean at the School of International Cultural Exchange and Associate Professor at the Law School at Central University of Finance and Economics (CUFE), Beijing, China. He holds an LL.B. from China University of Political Science and Law, an LL.M. from Beijing University, and a Ph.D. in Law from the University of International Business and Economics, Beijing, China. With more than 17 years of experience in international commercial arbitration as an arbitrator and staff member of the Secretariat of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission and a trade law expert for the Chinese Ministry of Commerce, Dr. Zhang will further his comparative research of WTO trade remedy. cufelaw@126.com