

WILLIAM COVINGTON

University of Washington School of Law
William H. Gates Hall, Room 439
Seattle, Washington 98135
(206) 616-4481 or (206) 329-3608
(206) 685-2388: fax
covinw@u.washington.edu

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN SCHOOL OF LAW: Ann Arbor, Michigan, JD 1977.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY: New York, New York, BA 1972,
Mark Carroll Award for Outstanding Service and Scholarship; Student Body President.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON SCHOOL OF LAW: Seattle, Washington, September 2003-present, Assistant Professor, Director Technology Law and Public Policy Clinic, Faculty Manager, Public Service Externship Program

Courses taught: Technology Law and Public Policy; Law and Legislative Process; General Externship Perspectives. Member, Law School Admissions Committee.

NORTH STAR GROUP: Seattle, Washington, March 1999-September 2003, Principal, Telecommunications Consulting Firm, drafted telecommunications and land use legislation for cities and towns. Assisted cable television companies, CLECs and OVS systems in acquiring necessary permissions to provide service.

AT&T WIRELESS SERVICES: Seattle, Washington, September 1989-March 1999, Corporate counsel responsible for: land use policy; managing state and local government/legislative relations; E-911 policy; pole attachments policy and site development policies.

TCI CABLE TELEVISION (formerly Group W Cable): Seattle, Washington, June 1984-September 1989, Regional counsel responsible for franchising, leasing, tax policy; lobbying and litigation coordination.

KING COUNTY GOVERNMENT, CABLE TELEVISION OFFICE: Seattle, Washington, June 1980-June 1984, Director, responsible for overseeing seven area cable television companies; crafted first county wide master cable television ordinance; oversaw utility permitting process and developed policies on telecommunications regulation.

EVERGREEN LEGAL SERVICES, Seattle, Washington, June 1977-June 1980, Staff attorney responsible for litigating family law; entitlements and landlord tenant matters.

TEACHING HISTORY

EDMONDS COMMUNITY COLLEGE, Lynnwood, Washington, March 1980-present, Instructor, responsible for developing materials for and teaching, Business Law, Civil Procedure, Contracts, Introduction to Law, Legal Research and Workers Compensation classes.

SEATTLE AFRICAN-AMERICAN ACADEMY Tutor(ed) elementary school students.

ASSOCIATIONS AND MEMBERSHIPS

Center for Community Alternatives
Jean M. Covington Scholarship Fund
Leadership Tomorrow
United Negro College Fund
Washington State Bar Association