

Time	Monday, September 21, 2009
8:45 a.m.	Overview of the day's program – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss
9:00 -10:00 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Pretrial motions for Summary Judgment (Professor Deborah Maranville)
10:00 -10:15 a.m.	Break
10:15-11:15 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – In Chambers: The Honorable Marsha Pechman, U.S. District Court, Western Division of Washington
11:15–11:45 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study –Outline of Appellate Procedure (Professor Theo Myhre)
11:45–12:15 p.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Oral Arguments (Professor Michael Robinson-Dorn as Bill Tobin (Bradleys) & Professor Eric Schnapper as Ronald Roberts (ASARCO)) – Students divide into panels to decide case
12:15- 1:30 p.m.	Lunch (on your own) – Student panels deliberate
1:30-2:15 pm.	Foundations for Legal Study – ASARCO & Bradley counsel & student panels debrief
2:15 -2:30 p.m.	Break
2:30 - 4:15 p.m.	Academic Support: Law School Study Skills – Professor Sarah Kaltsounis
4:15 -4:30 p.m.	Evaluation – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss

The Law School thanks LexisNexis for sponsoring the morning and afternoon breaks on 9/21.

Time	Tuesday, September 22, 2009
8:45 a.m.	Overview of the day's program – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss
9:00 -10:30 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – How to read and brief a case: Bradley v. ASARCO (Professor Kate O'Neill)
10:30-10:45 a.m.	Break
10:45 -11:30 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study –How to read and brief a case (continued) (Professor Kate O'Neill)
11:30–12:30 p.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Case study: The lawyer's duty of confidentiality. What happens when & if a lawyer learns "damaging" confidential information? (Professor Sam Donaldson) – Student exercise
12:30-1:30 p.m.	Lunch (on your own) Law Library Tours: Group Beals: 12:30 -1:00 p.m. Group Yamashita: 1:00 - 1:30 p.m.

Time	Tuesday, September 22, 2009
1:30-2:00 p.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Confidentiality; Resolving the problem Hollywood style (Professor Sam Donaldson)
2:00-2:45 p.m.	Student Honor Code – Associate Dean Peter Nicolas
2:45-3:00 p.m.	Academic Assistance: Where to Begin – Associate Dean Peter Nicolas & Academic Services staff: Pontus Niklasson, Registrar; Margaret Kolberg, Ralph Pearson, and Dean Speer Distribution of 1L Group Assignments - Associate Dean Peter Nicolas – Announcement by CHRJ Book Co-op Chair Erin Steffy
3:00-3:15 p.m.	Evaluation – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss
3:15–4:30 p.m.	Financial Aid Advising (optional) – Arlo Hammontree, Financial Aid Coordinator (in Room 118)
3:15 -4:30 p.m.	Student Activities Fair - Brotman Galleria (First Floor Lobby)
5:00 p.m.	Student Organizations’ Happy Hour Onsite (optional)

The Law School thanks Westlaw for sponsoring the morning and afternoon breaks on 9/22.

Time	Wednesday, September 23, 2009
8:45 a.m.	Overview of the day’s program – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss
9:00 -9:45 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Analysis of motions on remand (Professor Deborah Maranville)
9:45 -10:00 a.m.	Break
10:00-11:30 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Summary Judgment Exercise (Professors Julia Gold & Deborah Maranville)
11:30-12:30 p.m.	Foundations for Legal Study –What a trial would have looked like (Felix Luna & Mike Wampold, of Peterson, Young Putra)
12:30-1:45 p.m.	Lunch (on your own) Law Library Tours: [both tours will be held at 1:15p.m.] Group Phillips: 1:15 – 1:45 p.m. Group Ringold: 1:15 - 1:45 p.m.
1:45 -2:45 p.m.	Lawyers as Leaders – Washington State Bar Association (Paula Littlewood, Executive Director; Mark Johnson, WSBA President, 2008-09; Doug Ende, Office of Disciplinary Counsel)
2:45-3:00 p.m.	Evaluation – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss
3:00-3:45 p.m.	Curriculum B Meeting – Room to be announced (Professor Mike Townsend)

The Law School thanks the wonderful law school staff who assisted in producing this year’s program.

Time	Thursday, September 24, 2009
8:45 a.m.	Overview of the day's program – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss
9:00 -10:15 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Bradley Remembered: Panel consisting of Mike and Marie Bradley (plaintiffs); Bill Tobin (former attorney for the Bradleys); and Superior Court Judge Kathryn Nelson or designee (former attorney for ASARCO)
10:15 -10:30 a.m.	Break
10:30-11:30 a.m.	Foundations for Legal Study – Bradley and its Lessons: Was Justice Done? Did Justice Emerge? (Professor Michael Robinson-Dorn and Loren Dunn, of Riddell Williams)
11:30-1:00 p.m.	Lunch (on your own) Law Library Tours: Group Lomen: 11:45 – 12:15 p.m. Group Maxey: 12:30 - 1:00 p.m.
1:00 -1:50 p.m.	Meet with Peer Mentors – Room assignments to be announced – How to Succeed in Law School
2:00-2:30 p.m.	Self-Care in Law School (Return to Room 138) – Ellen Taylor, Ph.D., Director, UW Counseling Center
2:30-2:45 p.m.	Mentoring: Law School, Practice, and Work-Life Balance – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss and Assistant Dean Naomi Sanchez
2:45-3:00 p.m.	Evaluation – Associate Dean Mary Hotchkiss
3:00-5:00 p.m.	Closing Event for 2009 Foundations for Legal Study – To be held in the Perkins Coie Conference Room, the Brotman Galleria, and (weather permitting) the Patio

The Law School thanks BAR/BRI of Washington for their support of the closing event on 9/24.