Welcome to the Class of 2018!

The Academic Services Staff welcomes you to the University of Washington School of Law. We look forward to meeting you during the Foundations for Legal Study program (FLS). The following information will allow you to register for first quarter place holder courses; your actual class schedule will be finalized and announced during FLS. We have also included some information we hope you find helpful.

Registering for Classes
The incoming class is divided into groups that are carefully selected to provide a balanced mix of academic backgrounds and life experiences. Group assignments cannot be changed. Your final class schedule will depend upon your assigned group.

First Year Class Schedule
1L Classes meet between the hours of 8:30am and 3:30pm, Monday through Friday, throughout all three quarters. Please note that first year course scheduling information on the law school website is subject to change. If changes need to be made, we will provide as much advance notice as we can. There are also occasionally evening activities such as moot court competitions, public service lectures, and mentor-mentee events.

Examination Schedule
Autumn Quarter first-year exams are scheduled on December 14, 16, and 18 (M-W-F). Do NOT make any plans that will conflict with these exam dates.

Measles Immunization Verification
Before registration, you must complete and return the Measles Immunity Verification form you received in the mail when you paid your deposit (also available at http://depts.washington.edu/hhpccweb/content/clinics/uw-measles-requirement/uw-measles-requirement-and-health-sciences-immunization-progr). Professional & Faculty Mentor Programs
Seattle’s diverse legal community provides UW law students with outstanding opportunities to learn about legal career options. Our Professional Mentor program pairs students with practicing judges and professionals in the Seattle area. Our Faculty Mentor program assigns a small group of students to a faculty member not teaching in the first-year curriculum. The mentor programs match on common characteristics such as areas of interest, career pathways, educational or professional background. Mentors meet with mentees throughout the academic year to offer guidance and encouragement, facilitate networking opportunities and share specialized knowledge. The initial Mentor-Mentee event will be held early in the Autumn quarter.

ID Cards
Get your Husky Card™ (student identification card) at the Student ID Card Center on the ground floor of the Odegaard Undergraduate Library, next to the By George Café. Bring a government issued photo identification and your student number with you. The Husky Card™ may also be used as a bus pass, to get special prices on computers at the University Book Store, to purchase UW football tickets, and more. Additional information about the Husky Card™ is available here or through the Husky Card Account & ID Center at 206-543-7222.

Commuting and the U-Pass (Bus Pass)
Students have a variety of options for their transportation to the University. One of these is the U-Pass for the public transit systems. To find out more about the U-Pass and other commuter options, see: http://www.washington.edu/commuterservices/.

Tuition
Autumn tuition is due on October 16, 2015.

Insurance
You may access insurance information at: http://depts.washington.edu/ovpsl/insurance/
Disability Resources
If you know that you have a disability, you should contact DRS as soon as possible. It is the student's responsibility to self-identify to DRS to receive services. DRS will conduct an intake appointment and walk the student through policies and procedures regarding academic accommodations. For more information see http://depts.washington.edu/uwdrs/.

Email Communication
The UW email system provides an important means of communication between students, faculty, staff and administration. You will be added to the Law School's "LawDawgs" email distribution list, which is used to distribute messages from the administration and student groups. You are responsible for any information distributed to you or your class via the LawDawgs listserv. Please note that general news and events are publicized through “Student Announcements,” a blog accessed through the MyLaw portal. Every student receives a weekly compilation of student announcements. You can also opt-in for more frequent updates.

Lockers
Every incoming first-year student will be assigned a locker during FLS. Lockers are provided free of charge, but students must provide their own locks. You will be informed of your locker assignment during FLS. You must claim your assigned locker by putting your padlock on it by Monday, September 28, 2015.
