

APPENDIX II

Guidelines for UW Law School Student Participation in Overseas Externships or Study Abroad.

Program of Study	ABA Requirements	UW Law School Requirements	UW Affiliation possible?	Tuition
Intl Public Service Externship	Compliance with Standard 305 (equivalent to domestic externship)	See Law School Overseas Externship guidance – site visit required if over 9 credits	Yes via concurrent enrollment in FSTDY 300 and payment of $200 fee per quarter	Student pays UW Law Tuition but waiver under discussion.
Study Abroad in ABA approved summer or semester abroad program	Compliance with Standards 307	Meeting with Academic Dean to receive approval for course work and plan of study	Yes via concurrent enrollment in FSTDY 300 and payment of $200 fee per quarter	Student pays tuition charged by ABA approved program
Individual study abroad at foreign university with non ABA approved program	Compliance with Standard 307 (Note: Law School may not send more than 12 students to one university within 3 consecutive years); Study must be at properly accredited institution that offers primary law degrees or equivalent.	Meeting with Academic Dean to receive approval for course work and plan of study	Yes via concurrent enrollment in FSTDY 300 and payment of $200 fee per quarter	Student pays tuition charged by the foreign university.
Study abroad through ABA program or non-ABA approved program at foreign university where UW also has formal exchange agreement	Compliance with requirements set forth by ABA for ABA-approved programs OR Individual Study	Meeting with Academic Dean to receive approval for course work and plan of study; Also need specific approval for participation in UE exchange.	Yes – need to apply to formally to participate in UW Exchange program and. Concurrent enrollment in FSTDY 300 required and payment of $200 fee per quarter	UW Law School Tuition (referred to as home tuition)