University of Washington School of Law
Fall 2016 Recruiting Program (OCI)
Employer Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

The University of Washington School of Law is committed to the principle of equal opportunity for all persons on the basis of individual merit and without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, veteran status or other factors irrelevant to work or study.

Employers using the services and facilities of Student and Career Services, or the law school in general, are required to comply in writing with this policy; with applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations; and with pertinent standards of the American Bar Association and the Association of American Law Schools. Pursuant to the Solomon Amendment and University of Washington policy, an exception to this policy is granted to the United States military, so far as discrimination on the basis of gender identity is concerned.

To participate in recruiting events on campus, employers must submit a completed and signed copy of this form to Student and Career Services.
