UNIVERSITY TEACHING AND SERVICE

I have taught criminal law and criminal procedure at the law school since 1969. Other courses I have taught include white collar crime, torts, evidence, sentencing and corrections, official control of deviant behavior and numerous continuing legal education seminars for a variety of lay and professional audiences.

I served as Vice Chair of the Faculty Senate of the University of Washington during 1993-1995, and as Chair of the Faculty Senate from September 1995 until September 1996. In 1996-1997 I served on the Senate Committee on Planning and Budgeting, the University Budget Committee, and the Provost Search Committee. In 2001 I chaired the Special Committee on Institutional Responsibilities in Courses with Teaching Assistants.
