STUDENT WORKSHEET AND APPROVAL FORM
International and Comparative Law Concentration Track

STUDENT NAME ________________________________________________

STUDENT ID _________________________________________________

STUDENT EMAIL _____________________________________________

FACULTY ADVISOR ___________________________________________

PLANNING STEPS

1. Attend student advising session, Spring Quarter of 1L year.

2. Planning consultation with Graduate Program Administrator (Mie Murazumi murazumi@) or one of the named Faculty Advisors below prior to 2L course selection.

3. Obtain Faculty Advisor signature on DECLARATION OF CONCENTRATION TRACK form: http://www.law.washington.edu/Students/Forms/ConcentrationTrackDeclaration.pdf

   For a current list of faculty advisors see:
   http://www.law.washington.edu/Students/Academics/Concentration/

4. Check off requirements on attached requirements sheet.

5. Submit this form with attachment for final approval of Faculty Advisor prior to graduation:

   ________________________________  ________________________________
   Faculty Advisor Final Approval    Date
WRITING REQUIREMENT

- A paper written as part of an international or comparative seminar course (3-6 credits). The course may be drawn from the list below, or may be an additional course approved for this purpose by the Concentration Track Faculty Advisor.

OR

- A faculty-supervised Law E500 Advanced Writing Project on an international or comparative law topic, approved by the supervising faculty member

COURSE REQUIREMENT (note that not all courses are offered every year)

At least two of the following foundational courses:

- A545 International Environmental Law
- A571 International Organizations
- A574 International Law
- B551 Comparative Law Seminar or B559 Comparative Law
- B596 Human Rights
- E545 International Trade law
- E546 International Commercial Arbitration

At least two of the following applied courses:

- B516 International Contracting
- B540 Japanese Law
- B541 Chinese Law
- B542 Korean Law
- B546 Comparative Corporate Governance
- B552 Tutorial in Comparative Law
- B556 Islamic Law
- B578 Legal Problems of Economic Development Seminar
- B599 Comparative Constitutional Law
- B599 Cross-border M&A
- E509 Introduction to EU Law
- E510 US & International Banking Law
- E526 Law Reform in Transition Economies
- E538 International Civil Litigation
- E539 US & EU E-Commerce Law
- E560 Contemporary Muslim Legal Systems
- P539 Law, Technology and Development
- Other international or comparative courses within or outside the Law School, which may include courses taken during study abroad. Each course of this kind must be equivalent to a minimum of 3 UW credits. Each of course of this kind must be approved for credit toward the concentration track by a faculty advisor for this concentration track. Course Title & #: _______________________________