General Instructions:
Rising 2L and 3L students who expect to attend any quarter during the 2018-19 academic year should review this Course Planning Packet and the referenced UW Law webpages. Students should note that they are selecting courses for the full academic year. Students must submit course requests by Monday, May 7 and requests are limited to 18 credits per quarter. Requests in excess of 18 credits will be disregarded.

Important Dates:

Friday, April 6, 2018
Clinic application page activated. Students may start requesting clinics.

Thursday, April 12, 12:30 – 1:20 pm
Academic Planning Overview | Room 138

Failure to submit by the deadline excludes you from all course lotteries.

Friday, May 11
Course request results available.
Registration for Autumn 2018 is open.

Monday, June 18
Summer classes begin. See the Course Catalog Page.

Monday, June 18, 9:00 am
Deadline for priority registration for Autumn Quarter 2018 clinics and courses. Failure to register on MyUW may result in the loss of a spot in a clinic or high-demand course.

* Individual advising for concurrent students and/or FLAS recipients: contact Dean Williams (lawdfs@uw.edu) or Dean Berry (mmberry@uw.edu).

Academic Advising: In addition to advising sessions, check online for:
1. Our dynamic online catalog, with sample syllabi and instructor profiles;
2. Detailed information about concentration tracks and specialized practice areas; and
3. Guidance on how to satisfy graduation requirements.

Students are encouraged to seek advice from faculty mentors, SCS coaches, administrators, professional mentors, and upper-level students.

Please note that 2018-19 course offerings are subject to change:
The actual offering of courses is subject to enrollment, faculty availability, and funding. We plan to offer the listed courses if (a) pre-enrollment justifies it; (b) appropriate faculty are available; and (c) the required funding is available. The Autumn 2018 Time Schedule on MyUW may not reflect recent changes.
I. The Four (Post 1L) Graduation Requirements

A. Professional Responsibility (PR) Requirement - All JD students must successfully complete Problems in Professional Responsibility, Law B510.1

During the 2018-2019 academic year, Law B510 will be offered four times: Summer, Autumn, Winter; and Spring. All faculty teach ethical problems and considerations of the Rules of Professional Conduct, but their emphasis may differ. Third-year students receive priority when registering for Law B510 but not for a particular section or quarter.

Students are encouraged to take the MPRE (Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam) before graduation. The MPRE is administered in August, November and March. See the National Conference of Bar Examiners website for registration information and deadlines. Register early to ensure your preferred testing location!

B. Advanced Writing Requirement – JD students must successfully complete an advanced writing project.2 Students may fulfill this requirement by:

1. Meeting the requirements of any law seminar which carries at least 4 credits, or
2. By writing & revising an acceptable paper, brief or other writing in any 2L or 3L course which carries at least 3 credits, including clinics (advanced consent of the instructor is required), or
3. By completing 1-2 credits of LAW E 500 Independent Advanced Writing, with faculty supervised student revision of work from a prior class, externship, moot court competition or journal seminar.

This ABA requirement ensures students have significant experience developing skills in research, analysis and writing. Writing projects vary, but must be substantial, providing evidence of high level research and analysis. Faculty supervision and student revision are essential. The project should extend over two or more quarters but may, with the faculty supervisor's approval, be completed in one quarter. We strongly encourage students satisfy this requirement by the end of the quarter before their final quarter, whenever possible. Look to the UW Law Advanced Writing Requirement page for an in depth description of the requirement.

C. Experiential Requirement – JD students must complete at least 9 credits of experiential course work through simulation courses, law clinics, and externships.3 Courses satisfying this requirement must be primarily experiential in nature, integrating doctrine, theory, skills and ethics, with opportunities for performance & self-evaluation. Look to the UW Law Experiential Coursework Requirement page for details of this requirement.

D. Public Service Requirement – JD students must perform at least 60 hours of public service legal work during their 2L or 3L year. This requirement may be satisfied by a clinic, 2 or more credits in a public service externship, or Street Law. All externships must be approved by the Director of Externships, Esther Park, in advance. Look to the UW Law JD Public Service Requirement page for an in depth description of this requirement.

Important Limitations:
A multi-quarter clinic may count towards the Experiential Requirement in one or two quarters and the Public Service Requirement in a third quarter. An externship in a For-Profit Small Firm (LAW C530) or For-Profit Corporate Counsel (C535) may count towards the Experiential Requirement but it will not count towards the Public Service Requirement. Under the ABA Standards, a course that includes a writing experience used to satisfy the upper-class writing requirement in Standard 303(a)(2) cannot be counted as one of the experiential courses required in Standard 303(a)(3).

1 ABA Standard 303(a)(1).
2 ABA Standard 303(a)(2).
3 ABA Standard 303(a)(3).
II. General Policies

A. The ABA limits the number of credits earned outside of regularly scheduled law school courses. This rule provides the maximum number of credits a student may count toward the JD in each of the below categories:

   a) LAW 600 C, D, E or F* (Independent Study) – 8 credits
   b) LAW E500 (Advanced Writing Project) – 3 credits
   c) Outside Courses (those taken in other units of the University or externships – 18 credits

* LAW 600 credits for Moot Court must be claimed in the quarter of the competition or the subsequent quarter.

B. Full-time faculty supervisors are required for LAW 600 Independent Study and LAW E500 Advanced Writing Projects. Part-time faculty may supervise E500 projects only with the permission of an Associate Dean.

C. Cautionary note on Credit/No Credit courses. UW Law does not restrict the number of ungraded credits. The Order of the Coif, the national honor society for the top 10% of the graduating JD class requires that at least 75% law school work be graded. Important note: an analysis of recent bar results shows a correlation between a high number of ungraded credits and failure to pass the bar exam on the first attempt. We strongly encourage third-year students to take several exam-based courses in their final two quarters before graduation.

D. S/NS grading is not an option for JD students; S/NS courses do not count towards degree requirements. For LLM students, this option must be approved by your program director.

E. Eight-Week Spring Quarter 2019 – All upper-level courses meet for eight weeks spring quarter.

III. General Planning Advice

Focus on developing a strong, balanced knowledge base and professional skills. Check out the UW Law’s “Becoming a Lawyer” page for additional information regarding specialized areas of practice and externships.

A. What’s the normal upper-level course load? How do I know if there is an exam or final paper? Most upper-level students take 16-17 credits a quarter (4-5 courses). The Exam Schedule lists known exam and paper courses but some faculty finalize this decision closer to the quarter. Past syllabi are posted in the Course Catalog for your use. Students seeking to accelerate and graduate in 2+ years should review the Accelerated JD page.

B. What are the high-demand, strongly recommended upper-level courses?

   A509   Administrative Law
   A515   Business Organizations
   A519   Transmission of Wealth
   A530   Individual Income Tax
   A592   Constitutional Law II
   B500   Civil Procedure II
   B503   Evidence
   B510   Professional Responsibility
   B515   Criminal Procedure: Investigation
   B520   Trial Advocacy I
   B523   Negotiation
   E516   Criminal Procedure, Adjudication

C. Will completion of a seminar fulfill the Advanced Writing Requirement? Seminars of 4 or more credits automatically satisfy the requirement. Written work from a smaller-credit seminar, course, clinic, moot court, or externship may be revised and expanded in a subsequent quarter under the supervision of a full-time faculty member. See http://www.law.washington.edu/Students/Forms/AdvancedWritingRequirement.pdf.

D. What courses should I take for the Bar Exam? Beginning with the class of 2021, students will be required to take Administrative Law, Business Organizations and Evidence. Additionally, we recommend taking a mix of upper-level bar courses such as Civil Procedure II, Criminal Procedure, Individual Income Tax, Sales, Secured Transactions, Torts II, and Transmission of Wealth.

To determine the admissions requirements (and specific subjects tested) in the state in which you intend to practice, see the National Conference of Bar Examiners’ Comprehensive Guide to Bar Admissions Requirements posted at http://www.ncbex.org/publications/bar-admissions-guide/.

Washington applicants must pass the Uniform Bar Exam (UBE). The UBE consists of:

1. The Multistate Bar Exam (MBE) - Subjects tested include Civil Procedure, Constitutional Law, Contracts, Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Evidence, Real Property and Torts;
2. The Multistate Essay Exam (MEE) - Subjects that may be covered include Business Associations, Conflicts, Constitutional Law, Contracts, Criminal Law & Procedure, Evidence, Family Law, Federal Civil Procedure, Real Property, Torts, Trusts & Estates, and UCC courses; and
3. The Multistate Performance Test (MPT) - tests lawyering skills such as drafting a memo, a client letter, a contract provision, a will, etc.

Applicants must also pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam (MPRE) and the Washington Law Component within one year of passing the UBE.

E. What courses should I take if I am thinking about a judicial clerkship? Select courses strategically to maximize the knowledge and skills needed for clerking and to build strong relationships with faculty. Look to the UW Law Judicial Clerkship Manual for specific recommendations.

F. Why should I consider doing a Concentration Track? To gain expertise in a specialized practice area that is noted on your transcript to demonstrate interest area to employers. Tracks include Asian Law; Dispute Resolution; Environmental Law; Global Business Law; Health Law; Intellectual Property & Technology Law; International & Comparative Law; Law, Business and Entrepreneurship; and Public Service Law. Look to the UW Law Concentration Track pages for details.

IV. Faculty Sabbaticals and Leaves

Faculty go on leave from time to time. The online catalog includes faculty information for the upcoming academic year.

V. Master of Law Classes (LLM)

Courses with the prefix of LAW H, LAW P, or LAW T are designated as graduate law courses in Health, Intellectual Property and Tax. JD priority is given to: priority is given to: welcome to take these courses provided they meet the prerequisites or obtain permission from the program director.

VI. Clinics – Policies

A. Clinical Requirements: Enrollment in all clinics is limited. Most clinics are open to both second- and third-year students. Some clinics require students to be Rule 9 certified which requires completion of at least 90 credits, or third-year standing. Several clinics have prerequisites or co-requisites. A good overview of requirements, including FAQs, is linked at https://www.law.washington.edu/students/clinics/default.aspx. In addition, summary chart of each clinic’s requirements can be found at:

B. Enrollment Priorities for Clinics: In general, priority is given to: (1) third-year students with no prior clinic; (2) second-year students with no prior clinic; (3) third-year students with a prior clinic; and (4) second-year students with a prior clinic. Each clinic may have additional selection criteria (linked in the sixth column of the chart at

C. Selection System: Students must submit the online Clinic Request Form and associated documents by Friday, April 20, 2018 at 9:00 am. If required, students must complete the relevant application form posted on the Clinic Requests site (available only during the enrollment period). For non-application clinics, Academic Services will conduct a lottery and offer students the clinic places as close as possible to their ranked preferences. Students offered a place in a clinic that begins Autumn Quarter must accept and register by Tuesday, June 20.

D. Clinic Policy for Multi-Quarter Clinics: For most multi-quarter clinics, students must commit to enrolling for the entire academic year, and they will receive credit only upon completion of all three quarters.

E. Early Graduation: A faculty member, on an overload basis, may allow a third-year student graduating early to enroll in and receive credit for fewer than all quarters of a multi-quarter clinic. This policy requires clinic supervisor approval before enrolling in the clinic.

VII. Limitations on Enrollment – See course catalog for enrollment caps on seminars and experiential courses.

A. Assignment to limited-enrollment courses and to sections: The number of students requesting each course will be tallied to assess whether there are more requests than spaces available. If the requests do not exceed available space or enrollment limitation, all students will be approved. For high-demand courses eligibility is determined by lottery. Students in “accept” status receive add codes; the remaining students are notified of their waitlist status.

B. Registration for limited enrollment classes: Students awarded a space by lottery must register for the class by the deadline or they will lose their space to students on the wait list.

VIII. Non-law Courses for JD Credit

A law student may earn up to 18 quarter-hours of credit toward the JD degree for non-law coursework. Students must seek approval through completion of the online form to document how such course work contributes to their professional education. See https://www.law.washington.edu/Students/Forms/Private/CreditRequest.aspx.

Only graded, graduate-level or courses numbered 400-level or above will be approved. Non-law courses and externship credits combined cannot exceed a total of 18 credits; a significant externship may therefore limit the amount of non-law credits that can be counted toward a JD degree.

IX. Study Abroad Planning Considerations

We believe that meaningful and closely monitored educational opportunities abroad help our students become culturally competent leaders and lawyers

A. Study Abroad: Before enrolling in a study abroad program students must obtain academic approval from UW Law and develop, in consultation with the Dean for Students, a written plan that defines the student’s objectives for the study abroad. Grades from study abroad programs are not calculated into the UW Law GPA. See http://www.law.washington.edu/Students/Academics/IntlStudyExtern.aspx?vw=Abroad
B. Tuition and Financial Aid: Students participating in Law School or UW exchange programs are eligible to pay UW tuition for study abroad rather than the overseas tuition. The student must enroll concurrently in the foreign institution and UW and pay a concurrent enrollment fee each quarter. Students should consult with the Law School Financial Aid Office about financial aid for study abroad. Travel scholarships; include funding through CASRIP, the Asian Law Center, and the Bretschneider Scholarship to Study Intellectual Property Law Abroad.

C. UW Law School Study Abroad Partners for Quarterly Exchange: The Law School has exchange agreements with the law faculties of the universities listed on the UW Law Guidance on International Externships and Study Abroad page.
