WINTER QUARTER ROOM CHANGES

A 577 Immigration Law (Brown, Benson): Monday classes will be held in room 117 for the rest of the quarter. The class will continue to meet in room 119 on other days of the week.

B520 AF Trial Advocacy (Murray): Section meeting will be in room 133 for the rest of the quarter.

B551 Comparative Law Seminar (Clarke, Linnan): Class will be held in room 119 for the rest of the quarter.

T516 International Taxation (Gianni): Class will meet in room 127 for the rest of the quarter.

3rd YEAR STUDENTS

Each student is wholly responsible for meeting their graduation requirements. These requirements can be found in the Law School catalog or online at http://www.law.washington.edu/Students/Academics/GradReq.html

3rd Year students are encouraged to meet with William Jackson in Academic Services to review their progress towards meeting graduation requirements. Appointments can be made by email at w.jackson@u.washington.edu. Review meetings typically take about 10-15 minutes.

WINTER QUARTER EXAM SCHEDULE

The exam schedule for Winter Quarter can be viewed at: http://www.law.washington.edu/Students/examschedule.html. This is the official exam schedule for the Law School; disregard any exam times and dates that may appear on your MyUW.

Students who have a scheduling conflict need to request an exam reschedule through Academic Services. The forms and policy information are available at room 361. The Law School Exam Policy allows for rescheduling of an exam if a student has more than one exam on one day, or three or more over three consecutive calendar days.

DO NOT DISCUSS RESCHEDULING WITH YOUR PROFESSOR.

LAW CLINICS NEWS

Congratulations to the Unemployment Compensation Clinic for their success in Radermacher v. Dept. of Social and Health Services. The case challenged DSHS’s refusal to grant administrative hearings to those caretakers of elderly or disabled clients who were accused of abuse.

The clinic’s client, accused of abuse because she raised her voice and used swear words, originally sought assistance with an unemployment claim. Clinic students Sidney Reynolds, ’02 and Minsu Keyong, ’03 successfully represented the client at her unemployment compensation hearing.

The client’s right to constitutional due process was successfully argued in the Superior Court by Sidney Reynolds, a 2002 graduate. The Court held that the client was entitled to an administrative hearing. DSHS’s recent withdrawal of its Div. I appeal has resulted in a favorable settlement of the case.

Meeting Notices/Announcements

One of the elements of the “posting policy” for lawdawgs is “…an effort to balance students’ need to know with a limit on the volume of traffic…” (The full policy can be viewed at http://www.law.washington.edu/Computing/LawDawgs.html)

To accomplish this, organizational meetings and events should be primarily publicized through announcements in The Crier. Scheduled meetings are included in the “Student Calendar” in The Crier and a print version of this calendar is posted Friday afternoons on the building bulletin boards. A single follow-up email the day prior or the same day as a reminder should be sufficient notice.
This scholarship is specifically restricted to applicants who will be second-year students during the 2004-2005 academic year. The 2003-2004 award was $5,950.

Evaluation of your application will be based on your demonstrated financial need and your response to the following essay question:

Describe your personal interest and involvement in civic or community activities particularly as they may relate to current and emerging societal issues and concerns such as (but not limited to) the environment, the provision of legal services to the poor and under-represented segments of the population, and public understanding of the law.

Although not required, you may also submit a letter of recommendation and a resume as part of your application.

Application deadline is March 5, 2004.

OUTSIDE FELLOWSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS & WRITING CONTESTS

Copies of materials and further information for the fellowships, scholarships & writing competitions listed below is available in room 362.

Huckabay Teaching Fellowships
The Graduate School is pleased to announce the availability of Huckabay Teaching Fellowships for the 2004-2005 academic year. Fellows will be supported for one quarter at a compensation level equal to the amount paid to a PDTA 2, plus tuition and health insurance. These one-quarter awards are intended to give graduate students an opportunity to work on a specific project focused on teaching and learning at the college and university level. Applications are due in the Graduate School by March 29, 2004.

The Customs and International Trade Bar Assoc.
The Andrew P. Vance Memorial Writing Competition is accepting papers from students who are interested in careers in customs and international trade law. Prizes range from $500 to $2,000. Deadline for articles is April 19, 2004.

The Robert C. Finley Memorial Scholarship Fund was created in recognition of Justice Robert Finley’s extraordinary record of service to the legal profession, the system of justice, and the people of the State of Washington. During his 25 years on the bench he was known for his compassionate and caring approach and his genuine concern for fairness and justice. Justice Finley was a firm believer in the obligation of citizens to participate in community activities, and led by example in this area through his personal involvement in a wide range of programs and efforts at the local and state levels.

The Robert C. Finley Memorial Scholarship

The 2004 IADC Legal Writing Contest is interested in articles on a subject of practical concern to lawyers engaged in the defense or management of the defense of civil litigation. Prizes range from $500 to $2,000. Deadline for articles is April 19, 2004.

CAREER SERVICES EVENTS CALENDAR & GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

RESUME REVIEW
We are currently reviewing resumes and cover letters and encourage you to bring yours in or e-mail them to careerps@u.washington.edu for review. Resumes/cover letters received at the front desk are stamped with a date and time, and reviewed in the order they are received. Please allow 3-5 business days for your materials to be returned to you.

When completed, we will place the materials in your mailbox downstairs, and send you an e-mail. Once you have reviewed our comments, we would be happy to make an appointment with you to discuss any questions you might have.

If you would like to review the handouts from the resume and cover letter workshop, they are on our website at http://www.law.washington.edu/career/job/jobTips.html. We look forward to meeting with you and assisting you with your job search!

PUBLIC INTEREST LAW SPEAKER
To celebrate Public Interest Awareness Month, Career Services is hosting a discussion by Seattle attorney Judith Bendich. Ms. Bendich is a 1975 UWLS graduate and partner at the law firm of Bendich, Strobough & Strong. Her practice involves plaintiff employment class action work, predominantly, but not exclusively, for misclassified employees, such as employees called temporary, independent contractors, and payroll (through an agency) employees. Ms. Bendich’s most well known case was against Microsoft. Bendich, Strobough, & Strong received the Public Justice Award in 2000 from the Washington State Trial Lawyer's Assn., and were named Lawyers of the Year in 1997 by Lawyers Weekly USA. The UW Law School also gave Bendich, Strobaugh & Strong a "Resolution of Commendation" in January 2001.

Ms. Bendich will discuss her involvement with the ACLU, which began when she was a law school student volunteer in 1974-75. Ms. Bendich then became president of the Washington state affiliate from 1981 through 1983, and a ACLU National Board member from October 1983 to present. She also served on the National Board's Executive Committee from 1987 - 1997.) She will discuss her experiences with the ACLU and generally talk about its present work.

Please join us on Tuesday, February 3rd in Room 127 at 12:30-1:20 to welcome Ms. Bendich. Refreshments will be provided.

SUPREME COURT TOUR
The International Practice Section of the WSBA would like to invite foreign lawyers attending the University of Washington School of Law LLM Program to visit the Supreme Court, and the Governor's office on Monday, March 22nd.

The tour is free and includes lunch. Students will meet Supreme Court Justices and the Governor’s Legal Staff. Transportation is provided. Students will meet at the law school at 9:30 a.m. on March 22nd for a bus ride to Olympia.

Please e-mail Kristi Favard in Career Services by Feb. 23rd at kstanton@u.washington.edu to reserve your spot.

JOB ANNOUNCEMENTS
Job announcements are available online at www.eattorney.com. Please e-mail the Career Services Center at careerps@u.washington.edu if you need your login and password.

We are getting new job announcements everyday. In addition to traditional summer positions there are temporary student researcher jobs, some starting immediately. These positions generally pay about $15/hour, and in this market, may be a good way to gain some experience to set you apart from the crowd. In addition, you will have the opportunity to network--always a good thing.
Duties: Externs will work on a wide range of civil and criminal matters. Externs will draft short memoranda synthesizing appellate issues and will perform original research to assist the judges and commissioners in drafting rulings and opinions. Judge Elaine Houghton and Judge Robin Hunt will directly supervise externs. Externs will also have the opportunity to work with five more state appellate judges and commissioners.

Application Materials: Please submit a cover letter, resume, references, writing sample (under ten pages; an excerpt is fine) and law school transcript.*

Note to 1L’s: submit the name of at least one professor familiar with your legal writing abilities in lieu of a law school transcript.

Deadline: Mid-February, however positions may be filled earlier. Send applications to:
The Honorable Elaine Houghton
Washington State Court of Appeals, Div. 11
950 Broadway, Ste 300 MS TB-06
Tacoma, WA 98402-4454

Public Defender’s Externship in Tacoma/Olympia

Classes: 2L’s & 3L’s

2003 UWLS graduate Janet McClanahan needs an extern to assist her with a Public Defender Contract with Thurston County District Court. The caseload is huge, and this is a great opportunity for someone interested in criminal law. She’s in court several days a week - a Rule 9 would be able to get a lot of courtroom experience. If anyone who lives in Olympia or Tacoma or anywhere near is interested, please email a cover letter and resume to Janet McClanahan at janet@mclanahanlaw.org.

Judicial Externship with the Northwest Intertribal Court System

Classes: 2L’s and 3L’s

A tribal court judge with the Northwest Intertribal Court System (NICS) in Mountlake Terrace has openings for externs. The externs will provide judicial, prosecutorial and code writing services to eight member Tribes in the Puget Sound area. The employers are looking for students interested in developing a working knowledge of tribal court systems. They could structure the externship according to the student’s interest and the current needs of NICS. In the past, externs have worked as a judicial law clerk at Tulalip, worked on pro se projects and provided judicial law clerk support in our Mountlake Terrace office. Currently they have a Rule 9 extern working with the Tulalip tribal prosecutor.

They are looking for 2Ls or 3Ls, who are interested in public service, Indian or tribal law. They would want a minimum commitment of 60 hours and can be flexible with the work schedule. Also, they are flexible with starting and end dates.

If interested, please send a letter of interest, writing sample and resume to the address or email below:
Michelle Demmert, Northwest Intertribal Court System
6912 220th Street S.W., Ste. 213
Mountlake Terrace, WA 98043-2171

FELLOWSHIPS

The John Caughlan Summer Fellowship is the only fully funded fellowship of the ACLU of Washington. It is available to highly capable law students with a demonstrated interest in civil liberties/civil rights. Particular consideration will be given to students who receive financial aid or who attend schools that do not provide summer grants for public interest work. Law students who can obtain public interest grants through their law school are encouraged to apply for an ACLU internship.

Supervision. The intern will work with ACLU-WA staff attorneys and/or with ACLU volunteer attorneys.

Time and Compensation. This is a full-time position, 37.5 hours per week for 10 to 12 weeks of the summer at $15/ hr.

Qualifications. Necessary prerequisites include academic standing as a 3rd year law student, a demonstrated interest in civil liberties/civil rights, good interpersonal and analytical skills, the ability to write in a clear and concise manner, and a career interest that includes public interest law.

To Apply. Students should send a letter of application, resume, writing sample, and list of references to ACLU of Washington, 705 2nd Avenue, Seattle, WA 98104. Applicants are encouraged to apply by February 13.

SUMMER INTERNSHIPS ABROAD

Please stop by Career Services to see the full announcement.

Umegae Chuo Law Office, established in 1972, is a progressive law firm in Osaka, consisting of 11 lawyers. Their main areas of practice are litigation, corporate, commercial transactions, bankruptcy, real estate and intellectual property. The firm is interested in 1Ls & 2Ls for their 2004 Summer Internship Program. The program is designed to provide the intern with an excellent experience in the practice of law in Japan, along with providing the law firm with an opportunity to interact with future American attorneys who have an interest in Japan. Although interns will not be compensated, the firm will be providing roundtrip transportation between Japan and the United States, local daily transportation to the office, along with providing a stipend to offset some of the living expenses during the summer. Japanese language fluency is required.

E-mail or Fax resume and cover letter to:
Richard Gabbert
E-mail: rgabbert@ameritech.net, or Fax: 773-913-6481
Telephone interviews will be scheduled with candidates starting in late January 2004.
Go take a look at the class photo display on Floor L2 by the copy center. In addition to class pictures from the last twenty-five years, the display also includes pictures dating back to the 1910s, as well as more recent pictures of graduates from the LL.M. programs. This "work in progress" amply demonstrates that in years gone by UW Law has had its share of "major players," several of whom can be found among the graduates already included in the photo display.

For example, look at the picture of the student body in 1916-1917 to get a glimpse of one of our more famous alumni – Lewis Baxter Schwellenbach. Schwellenbach graduated from UW Law in 1917 and went on to become a U.S. Senator, a U.S. District Court Judge, and the U.S. Secretary of Labor under President Truman. He began his illustrious political career in 1924 as the chairman of the Democratic State Convention. After being defeated in a bid for the governor of Washington in 1932, Schwellenbach was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1935 where he was appointed to serve as a delegate to the Interparliamentary Union at The Hague. In 1940, Franklin D. Roosevelt nominated him to become a judge of the United States Court for the Eastern District of Washington. Schwellenbach served in this capacity until 1945, when Harry S. Truman chose him to become his Secretary of Labor. As Secretary, Schwellenbach reorganized the Department of Labor and opposed congressional legislation curbing labor union activity. Schwellenbach served as Secretary of Labor until his death in 1948.

Another famous alum – Washington Governor Albert Rosellini – is pictured in the class photo of the student body in 1932-1933. After graduating from UW Law in 1933 and practicing law in Seattle for five years, Rosellini was elected to serve as a delegate to the Interparliamentary Union at The Hague. In 1940, Franklin D. Roosevelt nominated him to become a judge of the United States Court for the Eastern District of Washington. Schwellenbach served in this capacity until 1945, when Harry S. Truman chose him to become his Secretary of Labor. As Secretary, Schwellenbach reorganized the Department of Labor and opposed congressional legislation curbing labor union activity. Schwellenbach served as Secretary of Labor until his death in 1948.

A great resource for finding out more information about UW Law alumni is the Alumni Directory of the University of Washington School of Law, the most current version of which was published in 1994 and can be found at KF292.W3 A83 at Reference Area. The Directory provides class information, current occupations, and addresses for alums dating back to the first graduating class of UW Law School in 1901.

You may be able to identify other well-known alumni in the composite photos, and if so, the Library would like to hear from you. We are especially interested in locating any class photos for the years that are missing from the display. If you have one of these composite class photos or know where the Library might obtain one, please let any librarian know. Our goal is to work toward as complete a collection as possible for our Library display.

FAMOUS ALUMNI TRIVIA

1. Name two UW Law alums (Class of 1956 and 1958) who are currently serving as judges on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

2. Name the UW Law alum (1935) that was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1952 and then reelected in 1958, 1964, 1970, 1976 and again in 1982, where he served until his death on September 1, 1983.

3. Name the 1929 UW Law graduate who served in the U.S. Senate from 1944-1981, serving at different times as President pro tempore of the Senate and as Chairman of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, the Committee on Commerce, the Committee on Commerce, Science and Transportation, and the powerful Committee on Appropriations.

4. In what year did our building’s namesake, William H. Gates, finish law school at UW?

5. What 1957 graduate served the State of Washington in Congress from 1964-1994, where he served as Chairman of the House Democratic Caucus, the House Majority Whip, the House Majority Leader, and the Speaker of the House?

Bring your answers by the Reference Office by noon on Wednesday, February 4, 2004, to be eligible to win your choice of excellent prizes.

AND NICELY DONE!

Congratulations to our 1L trivia expert, David Orange, who last week correctly matched all five Evidentiary Trivia quotations with their authors. David, please stop by the Reference Office to select your prize. The answers: (1) Benjamin Cardozo; (2) Henry David Thoreau; (3) Mark Twain; (4) John Adams; and (5) John J. Sirica.

SBA Column

First TGIT of the Quarter

Next week the first TGIT of the quarter will take place in the Galleria and on the terrace from 3:30-6:00 p.m. Please come join the SBA and your fellow students for food and drinks. This event is meant to kick-off the next two quarters of student organization-supported TGITs. We want to use this event to share what the SBA is doing on your behalf with each of you individually.

Last quarter saw a decrease in the amount TGITs compared to last year due to changes in the standards regarding TGITs and the increased costs for running these types of events. This quarter we would like to find as many student organizations that would like to help us put on these events once or twice a month to help support social interaction at the Law School. Please contact Alena Ciecko for more information about having your organization host a TGIT (aciecko@u.washington.edu).

Civil Legal Needs Study

I also wanted to encourage everyone to take a look at Justice Charles Johnson and Judge Mary Kay Becker's article about the Washington Civil Legal Needs study in the January issue of the Bar News. For those who do not know, in 2001 the Washington State Bar Association established a taskforce to study the civil legal needs of low-income and vulnerable people in the state. Both the article and the findings of the taskforce are quite interesting and worth review.

The study can be found online at www.courts.wa.gov/newsinfo/CivilLegalNeeds%20093003.pdf.

Have a great week.

CONGRATS TO THE NEW PARENTS!
Congratulatons to Dan Kirkpatrick, 1L, and his wife, Margaret Ann, on the birth of their first baby, Dorothy Priscilla Kirkpatrick. She was born at 1:37 am on Monday, January 26th. She weighed in at 7 pounds 5.7 ounces and was 19 and 1/2 inches long.

Attention 2Ls:
The Pacific Rim Law & Policy Journal's 2004 write-on competition is approaching! Submissions will be due Friday, April 30th at 1:00 p.m. If you are interested in competing, please attend the informational session on Thursday, February 5, 2003 at 12:30 in room 119. We will distribute copies of the Journal's style guide, discuss appropriate topics, review membership requirements, and answer any other questions you might have.

Please note that you will not sacrifice your anonymity by attending the informational session. It will be hosted by 3Ls who are not involved in the selection process.

As a reminder, the general requirements for a Journal Comment are:
(1) Geographic Scope: either
   (a) one of the Pacific Rim nations including, but by no means limited to: Australia, Cambodia, China, New Zealand, Pacific Island Nations & Territories, and Taiwan (the nations of North, Central and South America are not included except in the case of island territories of those nations), or
   (b) a legal body, issue or decision dealing with at least one of the Pacific Rim nations.
(2) Substance: comments should be timely, properly cited, well-defined, interesting, and well-researched.
(3) Length: approximately 20-30 pages.

If you have any immediate questions, please contact either one of the Associate Editors in Chief: Molly Siebert at msiebert@u.washington.edu or Sarah Tilstra at stilstra@u.washington.edu.

JOIN THE GREENLAW TEAM!
UW GreenLaw seeks Vice President for Outreach. Here's your chance to serve as a vital link between UW law students, GreenLaw advisory board and the larger environmental community, by gathering information on environmental career opportunities and organizing "brown bag lunch" speakers throughout the year. GreenLaw will accept nominations through 9am on 2/4/04, and elections will be held at the general membership meeting at 12:30 that day. Please send nominations to Kris Larson, GreenLaw Co-Secretary, at larsok@u.washington.edu. We look forward to working with you!

GREENLAW ENVIRONMENTAL SPEAKER
Spend lunch getting acquainted with our neighbor to the North! Join GreenLaw for an exciting presentation by Paul Koberstein, editor/publisher of Cascadia Times, a source of Pacific Northwest environmental news. Mr. Koberstein will discuss his latest investigation of British Columbian rainforest preservation and threats to the Pacific Ocean ecosystem. We will meet for catered lunch at 12:20 in room 133, UW Law School, on February 6. For more information on the Cascadia Times, see www.times.org.

NALS AT THANKS BINGO PARTICIPANTS
The Native American Law Student Association would like to thank the students, staff, faculty and members of the community who supported our second annual Bingo fundraiser. We greatly appreciate all our wonderful donors and those of you who were able to play Monday evening. Funds raised help to seed a team at the National NALSA Moot Court Competition, sends UW NALSA members to the National NALSA meeting, and even provides scholarship assistance to incoming law students. Thanks again for your support!

If you have any questions or comments about Bingo, future fundraising events, or joining NALSA, please contact Andrea Howard at andrea2@u.washington.edu or Matt Koenigs at koenigs@u.washington.edu.

IFAP MEETING - ADOPT A CLIENT
Tuesday, February 3, at 12:30 in Room 207
Please join us for sweets and putting together our Adopt a Client Valentines! This is a critical fundraiser this year to keep our organization running. Everyone is welcome and this is a great way to get involved in IFAP.
Questions: email Katie at kmc2@u.washington.edu

MLSA, BLSA, NALSA, LL SA and APALSA Joint Meeting
Please join the Minority Law Students Association, the Black Law Students Association, the Native American Law Students Association, the Asian Pacific American Law Students Association and the Latino Law Students Association at their next joint meeting on Wednesday, February 4th, at 12:30 in Room 117. Lunch will be provided.

Assisted Listening Devices Available
There are now assisted listening devices (ALD) available for student use. These under-the-chin headphones can be checked out from Academic Services (room 361) and used in any classroom in William Gates Hall. Students should notify their instructor if they plan to use an ALD; instructors need to use a microphone for an ALD to function properly.
CONSIDERING A CAREER IN INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY?
Get the inside scoop! Meet practicing attorneys from local firms and members of the IP sections of the Washington State and King County Bar Associations. This event will give you an opportunity to meet informally with attorneys and to learn and ask questions about their practices.

Plan to attend this special event!
Date: Wednesday, Feb. 11
Time: 3:30 - 6:00
Location: Perkins Coie Room
Please RSVP to:

WATCH THE CONDON BOWL II
Please join the Sports and Entertainment Law Assoc as we watch the footage from Condon Bowl II, this year's law school flag football tournament. We will be in room 133 at 12:30 on Monday, Feb 2. This is a chance to see some of you law school classmates star on the gridiron.
Pizza and Drinks will also be provided.
If you have any questions please contact Dutch Schotemeyer at schote@u.washington.edu.

DON'T MISS THE ABOLITION DAY 2004 TOUR!
The ABOLITION DAY 2004 TOUR is coming to the law school! On Wednesday, February 4th, from 12:30 to 1:30 in Room 119, come hear an exciting panel of speakers address alternatives to capital punishment.
Speakers include:

Juan Roberto Melendez Colon, the 99th person exonerated and released from death row in the United States since 1973. He will share his story of wrong conviction and surviving almost 18 years on death row.

Abe Bonowitz, director of Citizens United for Alternatives to the Death Penalty (CUADP), will share his experience moving from supporting the death penalty to opposing it.

Bill Pelke, co-founder of Murder Victims' Families for Reconciliation (MVFR), and author of book about forgiveness entitled "Journey of Hope: From Violence to Healing."

Light refreshments will be served. Don't miss this opportunity! For more information, contact Hilary House at househ@u.washington.edu. For more information about the tour, go to: www.CUADP.org.

Sponsored by the Innocence Project Northwest Student Chapter and the Washington Coalition Against the Death Penalty.

RECORDING OF CLASSES
If you know ahead of time that you will miss class (e.g. you have a business trip or a planned doctor's appointment), contact the instructor and ask him/her if he/she will tape the class, and provide the instructor the blank tape. All of the instructors have been given an opportunity to learn how to operate the recording equipment themselves. Some instructors may feel more comfortable doing this than others. Also, some may elect not to have a particular session taped due to content. (Most classrooms, but not all, have the equipment for either videotaping or audiotaping).

If you will need to miss a class due to an unexpected situation (e.g. illness, birth of a child) and cannot contact your instructor, contact Academic Services (206-543-0453, lawnews@u.washington.edu). A limited amount of "emergency" taping of classes can be arranged. It will depend on availability of staff and the workload for that day.

Getting notes from classmates is still a good primary plan.
