CLASS CHANGES FOR THIS WEEK

E541 E-Commerce (Winn) - make-up class will be held on November 3rd, 3:00-4:30, room 127

A502C Civil Procedure I (Trautman) - Class will be held Friday Nov 7th at 1:30 in room 127. No class Monday, Nov 10th.

WINTER QUARTER 2004 REGISTRATION

Winter registration starts on Friday, November 7th. Registration materials will be available online and at Academic Services by that time. The first deadline for most students will be Monday, November 24th. Students will need to register for any limited enrollment classes and clinics. By December 3rd, wait lists will be updated and add codes will be issued to those on the wait list who have been awarded a spot in the class.

NEW COURSES FOR WINTER AND SPRING

Updated copies of the Winter and Spring Quarter block schedules are available online at http://www.law.washington.edu/Students/index.html. Notable additions are: Law E 509 European Union Law (Winter), Law A 564 Legal History (Winter/Spring); Law A 509 Administrative Law (Spring; in addition to the Winter section); Law A 592 Con Law II (Spring). If you are interested in these courses or making an adjustment to your schedule, please send an email to lawnews@u.washington.edu. Watch for more details.

ADVANCED WRITING REQUIREMENT

Students must satisfy the Advanced Writing Requirement by the end of Winter quarter of their final year unless they will satisfy it in a seminar that continues into the Spring quarter of their final year. Exceptions to this rule must be approved by the Associate Dean no later than the end of Autumn quarter of the student’s third year of law school.

MESSAGE TO STUDENTS FROM THE INITIAL APPOINTMENTS COMMITTEE

The Initial Appointments Committee recently returned from the AALS Hiring Conference in Washington, D.C. with eleven extremely qualified candidates for faculty positions at the UW Law School. These candidates are among the "best and brightest" in the country, and include five women, one disabled person, and at least two scholars of color. We care very much what students think about these candidates, all of whom will be visiting Gates Hall in the next month. Each one of them will have a scheduled interview with interested students, and will present a scholarly colloquium that is open to faculty and students alike. We encourage (and request) widespread student involvement in the interviewing process, and hope that as many of you as possible will attend student interviews and the colloquia. Our first candidate, Amanda Tyler, will be here on Monday the 3rd of November, and will present her colloquium at 12:30 in the Roland Hjorth classroom (room 117) on the first floor of Gates Hall. Do plan to attend, and do communicate your views to your student representatives on the committee. They are: Monica Hammer (1L), Heather Meade (2L), Sonja Hardenbrook and Joanne Roth (3Ls), and Janelle Milodragovich (SBA Liaison). We are counting on you to help us select the very best possible faculty for this law school!

UPDATE ON SEARCH FOR DIRECTOR OF CAREER SERVICES

Thanks to all the faculty, students and staff who participated in the group sessions with the two candidates who interviewed in person for the position of Director of Career Services. We are still accepting comments and feedback from faculty, students and staff who attended the interview sessions. The search committee members (Professor Robert Aronson, Josie Mitchell, Mike Gotham and Alena Ciecko) are conducting phone reference calls this week on both candidates. The committee will meet next week to compile and assess our results.

We began to advertise the position in late July and our recruitment efforts included the following listings: The Chronicle of Higher Education; the National Association for Law Placement (NALP) Newsletter and Website; direct e-mail messages to members of the NALP Board of Directors; the Seattle Area Legal Recruiting Administrators (SALRA) Newsletter and announcements at monthly meetings; the King County Bar Association Bar Bulletin and website; the Washington State Bar Association Bar News and job postings website; the Law School Admission Council (LSAC) Admit-M website; the UW Employment Opportunities Bulletin website; and the Washburn listserv for Recruiting Professionals. This effort yielded approximately 60 applications. We take our responsibility very seriously and want to make sure that we find the ideal candidate, even if doing so requires a lengthier search process. We feel strongly that the person hired must have the necessary qualifications and experience to revamp our Career Services office and provide the leadership and service that we all expect!

We ask for your patience and assistance as we move through this process. As you know, approximately 35 faculty members have volunteered to assist with career advising. Students may review this list in the Career Services office. Please take advantage of the upcoming workshops listed in the Crier that are being conducted by recruitment professionals. The Career Services staff is also conducting ongoing workshops and they are available to meet with students individually. In addition, the Career Planning Committee will be meeting within the next few weeks to discuss additional ideas for Career Services enhancements. No student should be left with the feeling that assistance is unavailable. I ask not only for your patience but also for your support of our efforts as we move through this quarter. Feel free to meet with either Josie or with me if you have any questions, issues, concerns or suggestions that might help us assist you with your career planning needs. Thank you.

Assistant Dean

WIRELESS NETWORK INFORMATIONAL SESSIONS

 The wireless network in Gates Hall is almost complete. To finish the job, we need to shut down the network Monday morning November 3, 2003 from 7am to noon.

 Informational sessions for law students on accessing the wireless network will be held in room 138, 12:30-1:20pm on Tuesday Nov. 4th, and Wednesday Nov. 5th. Bring your laptop and see how easy access to the wireless network is! Information about printing using the wireless network will be demonstrated.

NOTICES AND POSTINGS IN GATES HALL

There are now five bulletin boards installed in the building: one by each elevator on floors one and two, and one in the hallway behind the student commons on the first floor. In addition, most classrooms and seminar rooms have a designated posting area. This is a large, identified paper sheet where notices of events can be taped. Please post only in these identified locations. Bulletin boards for the mailbox area are expected in soon.

ALL NOTICES need to be pre-approved at the Academic Services Office prior to posting in these areas. Notices for events at the UW require the accommodation statement be included. That statement reads:

To request disability accommodation, contact the Disability Services Office at least ten days in advance at: 206.543.6450/V, 206.543.6452/TTY, 206.685.7264 (FAX), or dso@u.washington.edu.
Happy Halloween!!

MATTHEW W. HILL SCHOLARSHIP
2003-2004 $2,600
The Matthew W. Hill Scholarship Fund was established in honor and memory of Justice Matthew Hill who was a member of the State Supreme Court from 1946 to 1969.
Justice Hill passed away at age 94 in 1989. The Scholarship Fund was established by gifts from lawyers who served as Justice Hill’s Law Clerks during his 26 years on the Supreme Court, including three who later became Justices of the Supreme Court themselves.

This scholarship is specifically restricted to the support of University of Washington School of Law students who will be second or third-year students during the 2003-2004 academic year.

Evaluation of your application will be based on your demonstrated financial need and your response to the following essay question:

Describe your involvement in civic or community activities and public service. You should discuss involvement in activities and services before or during your Law School career.

Although not required, you may also submit a letter of recommendation and a resume as part of your application.
Applications can be picked up in WHG 362.
Application deadline is November 26, 2003.

Westlaw Announcements

1L Westlaw Training
Thank you for attending training the past two weeks! Please don’t hesitate to ask for assistance as you begin the Westlaw learning process!

Westlaw Research Tip of the Week
Do you ever wish you had a research assistant who could expand on your case law research to find significant related content? When you run a search in a case law database on Westlaw, 3 additional searches are run in the West Digest System, the American Law Reports, and the American Jurisprudence. This new feature on Westlaw is called “Results Plus.”

Sign on to Westlaw at www.lawschool.westlaw.com and run the following case law search to see a Result Plus list. Access Washington Cases (WA-CS) and run this terms & connectors search: “family purpose doctrine”

On the right side of the screen is your Results Plus list! A great way to build your research project! Save time and get complete research results from Results Plus, only on Westlaw!
STAND UP AND BE COUNTED!

Tuesday, November 4, 2003 is Election Day, and King County and the State of Washington have made the process of obtaining voter information and voting itself easier than ever.

Local Elections

The Records, Elections, and Licensing Services Division of King County’s Department of Executive Services has put together a broad-based and highly informative election information website at http://www.metrokc.gov/elections/. The November, 2003 election will feature several local races, including the King County Assessor and seats on the King County Council, Seattle City Council, Port of Seattle, the Court of Appeals, Seattle Popular Monorail Authority, and a number of other special purpose districts. King County’s Election Information page features links to the current Voters’ Pamphlet, Election Results, and an Election Calendar. A complete list of candidates and measures on the General Election ballot is available at http://www.metrokc.gov/elections/2003nov/notice.htm.

State Elections

Washington State’s election information gateway was designed by the Office of the Secretary of State and can be found at http://www.secstate.wa.gov/elections/. This site provides links to the 2003 Voters Guide, election statistics, registration information, and a short History of Elections and Voting in Washington. The current Secretary of State, Sam Reed, has compiled an Election Law Search page at http://vote.wa.gov/law/index.tpl, which can be searched by keyword or by a quasi-table of contents configuration.

For those of you who prefer the look and feel of paper, the Law Library has a copy of the Washington State Voters Pamphlet (which includes King County and Seattle election information), at JF495.W2 A3 at Reference Office. If you’ve managed to forget your precinct’s polling place in the midst of all your studies, you can find it on your voter registration card or in one of the pre-election editions of the Seattle Times. This year, a new alternative is available for the forgetful voter—you can do a quick search on the County’s beta site, found at https://www.metrokc.gov/elections/pollingplace/birthday.aspx, which allows searches by name and address or by name and date of birth.

The polls are open on Election Day from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

ART WALK HONORS

First-year student, David Orange, was the first to undertake the Art Walk challenge. Congratulations, David, and great work!! For those who want the answers without doing all that work, a self-guided tour that includes each of the pieces in the Contemporary Native American Art Collection is scheduled to appear on the Gallagher Law Library’s web site in the near future.

The ballot is stronger than the bullet. ---Abraham Lincoln

Halloween Greetings!

By the time you read this column our favorite dress-up holiday will have come and passed. I would like to thank everyone who “got creative” and competed in the costume contest and to everyone who brought children to help liven up the day. Special thanks to Nick Anderson for organizing the costume contest and to Karen Boxx and Sam Donaldson for helping us judge the participants.

Healthy Students Make Healthy Lawyers

As many students and faculty know, Dr. Andy Benjamin has been working closely with the SBA to help design social activities and seminars to help lessen the stress of the law school experience on our students. He, Suzie Love and Abby Daquiz have worked hard to design a series of “coffee hours” which will cover a wide range of topics throughout the year, from dealing with time and life management to alcoholism and depression. The first sessions in the series were held on the 21st and 31st of October and will continue for the rest of the year.

Abby is also organizing a group of students to visit the Seattle Art Museum for First Thursday program which allows free entrance on the first Thursday of any month. Anyone who is interested in joining the group and also checking out the Seattle Art Walk, please contact Abby at agdaquiz@u.washington.edu. All of these programs, and our planned Movie Night series are a part of the healthy students and healthy lawyers pillar of the SBA’s work for this year.

Special Election for SBA Secretary

The SBA will be holding a special election beginning on the 10th and ending on the 12th of November for SBA Secretary position. Nominations are open now and will not close until next Wednesday, November 5th. Campaigning will continue through the election days. The Secretary position is critically important to the success of the SBA Board and will require an individual with strong communication skills. The main responsibilities for the position will include working closely with the Dean of Academic Services and student groups to develop a strong calendar of student events, creating SBA agendas, reporting SBA minutes and some advertising tasks. The position is open because of a recent resignation on the SBA Board. Sadly, Andrea Arnold decided two weeks ago to resign from the SBA Board. Her work and dedication to students was much appreciated during her period on the SBA. We thank her for her help and wish her and her son the best this year.

New Interns

You many notice a few new faces around the SBA office in the coming months. Allice Kim and Gary Manca, both UW undergraduate students (one current, one former), will be interning for the SBA for the year. Each student brings a great deal of energy and desire to attend law school to the position. The two interns will work from 3:30 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. on Monday and Friday. If you happen to visit the SBA office during the hours listed above, please introduce yourself and let the SBA know how the interns can be helpful to you or your organization.

Next week I will be discussing all of the plans for the SBA’s pillar of keeping public service a priority at the Law School.

Have a great week.

– Maurice (mclassen@u.washington.edu)

GIVE BLOOD. YOUR GIFT CAN SAVE A LIFE.
Dear Law School Community:

There are approximately 12 open slots for this upcoming blood drive. If 12 of you could spare 45 minutes to an hour of your time then we will have met our goal for the drive. There are hundreds of us here at the law school, students, staff and faculty and we should be able to fill the donation schedule easily.

Please consider signing up online for an appointment soon at http://www.psbc.org/mobiles/giveblood.asp?URL=0935. If you have questions or concerns about your eligibility to give, please e-mail clinicalprogram@psbc.org or call 1-800-DONATE-1, ext.2543.

THANKS for taking the time to read this and consider donating at the Blood Drive:

PHI ALPHA DELTA INFORMATIONAL MEETING!!
Attention all law students, Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity is having its first informational meeting of the year. If you are interested and want to learn more about this organization come to the meeting on November 6, in room 213 from 12:30-1:20.

AMERICAN CONSTITUTION SOCIETY
Would you like the chance to shape the future of one of the newest and most progressive student organizations at the law school?

Then have I got a deal for you!

At no money down, no interest until the end of the year, you, too, can own the position of 1L Representative or Development Director of the AMERICAN CONSTITUTION SOCIETY (ACS)!

But these positions will go fast so you must act quickly!

Here’s how!
Attend the ACS ELECTIONS MEETING next WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5 at 12:30 in Room 119, give a one or two minute spiel about yourself and why you should drive away with one of these sleek, yet powerful new positions, and then simply win a vote of the membership. It’s that simple!*

If you have any questions please email Jason Scott at jayscott@u.washington.edu.

*Not everyone can own a position as an officer in ACS. Whether or not you want to own a position, we encourage you to come to the meeting for a test drive. While the above information is accurate, please understand that this ad was meant to be humorous, and we apologize if you are not laughing. Although the specifications, features, illustrations, equipment and other information contained in this ad are based upon up-to-date information, and while ACS makes all reasonable efforts to ensure that all material in this ad is correct, accuracy cannot be guaranteed and ACS makes no warranties or representations as to its accuracy. FEDERALIST SOCIETY
The UW Chapter of the Federalist Society invites everyone, especially those who missed the first meeting, to attend our second general meeting.

Monday, Nov 3, 2003
12:30-1:30
Room 207
(as always, lunch provided)

We will debrief the same-sex marriage debate and discuss our next event, which is the Conservative/Libertarian Public Interest Organization Career Panel in November. Please contact Matt Page at mspage@u.washington.edu for more information.

INNOCENCE PROJECT NW STUDENT CHAPTER
The Innocence Project Northwest Student Chapter invites everyone to discuss our exciting new projects for the upcoming year and the goals of this organization!

This will be an informational meeting to share what the Innocence Project is all about. You will also have the to sign-up to head or volunteer for different activities such as lobbying Congress, bringing speakers to the UW, t-shirt fundraiser, and much more! We hope to see you there.
