SPRING QUARTER SCHEDULES

2L, 3L, and LLM students (except Tax) should be sure to check their adjusted online schedules for the status of their choices for Spring Quarter classes. In a few weeks, add codes for registration will be available.

Students need to limit their class credits to 16 to receive add codes. If you are someone who has more classes in “Accept” status then 16 credits, you need to decide what to keep and what you will “Decline.”

Students who wish to make additional requests for classes need to enter the new requests in the space provided on your online adjusted schedule.

8-WEEK COURSES:

In the second year of a pilot program, there will be some eight week courses offered in the Spring Quarter 2006. They will meet more often than other classes each week in order to get the required class time in during the shorter period. Law H 502 Medical Malpractice has been added to this group.

The courses are identified on the block schedule with a “#” symbol. (Most of these courses already have a waiting list.) The block schedule is available on the Student page of the website.

NEW CLASSES FOR SPRING QUARTER

Some additional classes have been added to the Spring Quarter schedule:

- Law A 583 Insurance Law (Weaver)
  TTh 1:30-3:20 (4 credits)
- Law B 517 Juvenile Justice Seminare (Ambrose)
  Th 1:30-3:20 (2 credits)
- Law B 599, section I – Human Rights in China (Fu)
  F 9:30-12:20 (3 credits)

YOUR QUESTIONS OUR ANSWERS

Watch this space for the next few weeks as members of the Law School Administration respond to the questions asked at the Student Town Hall Meeting held January 31, 2006!

Resources from the Washington State Bar Association

Second year students may have summer employment that requires them to be a legal intern (Rule 9). Information on this special work status as well as the application form is available at the WSBA website:

Third year students who will be applying for the bar examination in Washington may download the application from the WSBA website:
http://www.wsba.org/lawyers/licensing/apr3applicationform.pdf

Applications are not due until early in the Spring Quarter, but you can get started on gathering the information that you will need to complete the application.
Clerkship Basics and Writing Samples
Monday, February 6, 12:30-1:30 pm in room 119. This workshop is intended to help students avoid common mistakes when selecting and editing legal writing samples for clerkship and judicial externship applications. The program will be organized by former 9th Circuit clerk and UW alum Sarah Kaltsounis, who is currently practicing at Karr Tuttle. Other alumni clerks may also participate. The format of the session is open. Topics will include, "The Top 10 Writing Sample Mistakes," citation mastery, and writing sample examples. There will be a Q&A session at the end of the workshop, so be prepared to ask questions. To encourage interaction, each session is capped at 30 students. 2Ls who intend to apply for clerkships will be given priority registration. RSVP in Simplicity by signing in and clicking the date of the program. Link: https://law-uwashington-csm.symplicity.com/students/

Seattle City Attorney Infraction Prosecution Program
Tuesday, February 7, 12:30-1:30 pm in room 138. Phil Brenneman & Mike Finkle from the Seattle City Attorney's Office will present information about opportunities for UW students to be public service externs in the Seattle City Attorney's new infraction prosecution program.

Courtroom Externship Opportunity
Seattle City Attorney's Office
Infraction Prosecutor Externship
Three or Four externships will be available in the Spring, Summer and Fall Quarters.

Externs must be APR Rule 9 qualified. Externs will work as infraction prosecutors for the city—prosecuting infraction cases, including traffic, noise, animal control and disabled parking infractions.

Externs duties will include:
• trying contested infraction cases
• handling pre-hearing matters, including discovery issues
• preparing any necessary pleadings, motions, etc., and interviewing witnesses.

This externship requires a minimum commitment of 10-15 per week. Court hearings are scheduled on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Applications for the summer and school year internships must be received by February 10, 2006. Email a cover letter (up to 200 words on why you want to work at SLS and what you can offer SLS), resume, and three references to:

Are you a second year law student? Tired of the books? Looking forward to real client contact and court experience after your 2L year? UW Student Legal Services may be just what you’ve been looking for!

Student Legal Services has been providing affordable and effective legal assistance to UW students for over 35 years. Our clients are UW students with real legal needs: landlord-tenant, family law, criminal, traffic, insurance, debtor-creditor, consumer, estate planning, etc. You’ll educate, advise, negotiate, appear in court, grapple with ethical issues, and do everything real lawyers do, except (hopefully) grind your teeth.

$15/hr.; work-study OK. Can also work as extern. Must be Rule 9 eligible by end of summer 2006.

Drinks Allowed in LRTC
--Ann Hemmens

Drinks (in covered containers) are now allowed in the Legal Research Training Center in the Law Library. So feel free to bring your covered coffee drink to the next research class you attend in the LRTC. There is no food allowed in the LRTC.

Now we have the same policy throughout the Library -- drinks in covered containers are allowed, but no food is allowed (exception: food is allowed in the Bogle & Gates Law Student Lounge (L113) and in the group study rooms on floor L2). Enjoy!

Circulation Notice

You can return books to the Circulation Desk or to the Gallagher Law Library's book drops whether you've borrowed them from here, from any other library on campus, or through Summit. If they belong here, we check them in and reshelve them. If they belong somewhere else, we send them on their way.

Because of the very high volume of books coming through, once in a while there's one that goes astray. If you get an electronic overdue notice from a library two or more days after you've returned the material, please stop by the Law Library Circulation Desk. We'd be happy to search our stacks to be sure that the material hasn't been shelved in the wrong area or shelved in the Law Library by mistake.

Book of the Week: Student Lawyer
--Kristy Moon

Actually, Student Lawyer is not a book. It’s a journal published by the American Bar Association, Law Student Division. But because it contains helpful information for the law students, it’s worth highlighting it here.

It is published monthly from September through May, and includes articles about legal education, social/legal issues, careers, and the practice of law. Here is a sample of recently featured articles:

- Help Yourself and Others with Pro Bono (February 2006)
- The Rewards of Government Employment (Lawyers for public agencies describe the many benefits of their work) (October 2005)
- A Capitol Effort for Law Student Loan Reform (The ABA advocates for easing educational debt for public interest lawyers) (October 2005)
- Explain Your Behavior (Improve your job search by getting to know the “behavioral interview”) (September 2005)
- Secrets of a Bar Exam Survivor (Hints on how to pass the bar from someone who’s done so in seven states) (April 2005).

In addition to feature articles, there are regular columns. The “Jobs” column gives job-related advice (it recently focused on, for example, networking (December 2005), older and second-career law students (October 2005), and nonlegal careers (April 2005)). The “Hot Practice” column highlights different fields of law. And beginning with the October 2005 issue, you’ll find a new column called “Legal Research.” So far, it has covered regulations (October 2005), hornbooks (December 2005), and the American Law Reports (February 2006). The issues conclude with “Division Dialogue” which contains news and announcements (e.g., writing contests, internships, scholarships, etc.) from the ABA Law Student Division.

Student Lawyer is shelved at KF287.S77 in the Reference Area and in the Classified Stacks (older volumes). Recent issues are also available for free on the ABA Student Division Web Site at http://www.abanet.org/lsd/studentlawyer/.

UW School of Law featured on TVW

On Sunday evening if you find that you are still on the couch watching TV and trying to recover from Super Bowl XL, flip to channel 23 for a dose of "The Docket". "The Docket" is a weekly legal affairs show produced by TVW, the state's public affairs network, and hosted by Dean Joe Knight. Sunday's show (8 PM) prominently features the law school, including a one-on-one interview by Dean Knight with WSBA President, Brooke Taylor, a feature on the Olympia Quarter Fellows Program, and a review of the three cases heard here by the Washington State Supreme Court on Jan. 26, 2006.

For additional information and channel locations, go to: http://www.tvw.org.
WSBA-CLE Law School Student Tuition Waiver Pilot Program

The WSBA is pleased to announce the new Student Tuition Waiver Pilot Program to allow law school students from the UW to register for most of the CLE one-day-or-less live seminars on a complementary basis. Two students from the UW may attend each of the eligible programs. You must register within 5 business days before the seminar and registrations will be issued on a first come first served basis. Only WSBA-CLE Passport-eligible live and in-person seminars are eligible for the waiver.

View the seminar calendar at: http://www.wsba.org/cle/default.htm

Please contact the financial aid office for details on eligible programs and registration.

Mary Ellen Krug Scholarship for 3L’s

Applications are now being accepted for the Mary Ellen Krug Scholarship Award. An award will be made to the student or students who have demonstrated both an interest and proficiency in the fields of labor and employment law and related subjects. The amount of the awards may vary. Recipients will be selected by the Dean upon the recommendation of faculty members teaching labor and employment law. Applications should include (1) a cover letter explaining the applicant's qualifications, (2) a resume, and (3) two letters of recommendation (preferably faculty members). Applications should be submitted to Arlo Hammontree in the Financial Aid Office (362). The deadline for submission is February 17, 2006.

The New 2006-2007 FAFSA is now available!

Apply on the web at www.fafsa.ed.gov or come to my office and pick up a hard copy. We recommend you transmit or mail your application no later than February 15, 2006. This is in order to be received by the federal processor by the February 28, 2006 deadline.

The Bonderman Travel Fellowship

The Bonderman Travel Fellowship program offers graduate students (including those in the Law and Business schools) and undergraduate students in the University Honors Program and in UW Tacoma’s Global Honors Program an opportunity to engage in independent exploration and travel abroad. The Fellowship enables recipients to extend their experiences and expand their cultural horizons by exploring different parts of the world.

In the selection of Bonderman Fellows, we seek to identify students who demonstrate integrity, the capacity for vision and leadership, and potential for humane and effective participation in the world community. A candidate's academic record will be considered together with those experiences that reflect initiative, commitment, and creativity.

In your proposal please tell us where you want to go and why. Your proposal may not involve formal study at a foreign university, nor may it be under the auspices of a formal organization of any kind. Family heritage proposals, i.e. for travel to countries of origin, will not be considered. Bonderman Fellowships enable students to undertake independent international travel to explore, be open to the unexpected, and come to know the world in new ways.

At the time of application, candidates must be graduate or professional students or juniors and seniors in good standing in the University Honors Program (either college or departmental) or in the UW Tacoma Global Honors Program. A committee of past Bonderman Fellows, and faculty, and staff will review applications. Selected applicants will be invited for an interview, with awards announced during spring quarter.

Each Bonderman Fellow will receive a $20,000 award for travel. Fellows must travel for eight or more months, exploring six or more countries in two or more major regions of the world. Fellows selected in this round will embark on their journeys between June 2006 and December 2007. Students who propose to travel beginning later than December 2007 should apply in the next round.

SBA COLUMN

Town Hall Meeting

Thanks to all who attended the Town Hall Meeting last Tuesday. The SBA appreciates all the great feedback and student comments, both at the forum and afterwards. We plan on holding at least one more forum (in the spring quarter) and possibly an additional session this quarter.

As we all work together to make positive change for our school and community, it’s important to remember that, while things may not always happen as quickly as we like, positive steps are being made and that concerns are being heard.

To follow up on some of the issues brought forward at the forum, the SBA will begin working on a semesters/quarters resolution, continue to work with library and facilities staff about various facilities issues and also open a dialogue with PILA and the development staff about the loan repayment assistance program.

If you have any questions or comments about the forum or the issues that were raised, please don’t hesitate to contact myself or any other SBA officer.

Annual Law School Gala

Plans are currently underway for the Annual Law School Gala. This year’s gala will be held on April 14, at the Palace Ballroom. The Palace Ballroom is an event facility managed by Tom Douglas Events, so there will be delicious food from the Palace Kitchen, Lola and the Dahlia Lounge.

As usual, awards to faculty, staff and public interest students will be presented at the gala. The SBA is also adding an award for student organizations.

Student and staff tickets will be $30 and faculty tickets will be $60. Tickets will go on sale early in the spring quarter. If you are interested in helping to plan this year’s gala, please contact me.

Have a great week!

ALMOST HOME, MEMOIRS OF A DEATH ROW INMATE
The Innocence Project Northwest Presents:  A Live Reading of Almost Home, the Memoirs of Death Row Inmate Damien Echols

When:  February 8th, 6:45 pm
Where:  UWLS, William Gates Hall Room 138

Damien Echols was the subject of the award-winning documentary Paradise Lost which chronicled his wrongful arrest and subsequent wrongful conviction. He has been on death row in Arkansas for over 12 years. Damien's wife, Lorri Davis, will read Damien's story from his memoirs, Almost Home. In addition to the live reading by Davis, Damien will be reading excerpts from his book in a taped appearance from death row, along with Free the West Memphis Three advocate, comedian Margaret Cho.

The event is at William Gates Hall, located on the northeast corner of 43rd St. and 15th Ave. There is a reception following the reading. This event is free and open to the public.

There will be limited-edition, numbered and signed copies of Almost Home available.

If you have questions, please e-mail Kelly Canary (kcanary@u.washington.edu).

TECH LAW FACULTY PRESENTATION
The Technology Law Society presents the latest Intellectual Property Faculty Presentation. Please join us next Wednesday, February 8th at 12:30 in room 118. Bring your lunch and your questions!

Professors O'Neill and Takenaka will give brief presentations, followed by a Q & A session. Prof. O'Neill has interests in contracts and copyright, and her current research relates to the transfer of intellectual property during employment, comparing the approach used in Washington with that of other jurisdictions. Prof. Takenaka teaches courses on patent law, comparative patent law, intellectual property innovations in science and technology, and an intellectual property seminar. Her recent publications include articles on changes in the U.S. patent system to harmonize it with those of other countries.

LIFE AFTER EXONERATION
February 9th, 2006

The Innocence Project Northwest Clinic & the Life After Exoneration Program proudly invite you to the Seattle Premiere of the award winning documentary After Innocence from 7-9 PM at the Varsity Theatre. It will be hosted by director Jessica Sanders & Wilton Dedge who spent 23 years in prison before being exonerated as innocent.

Immediately following the screening, the Burke Museum will host a reception. From 9-11 PM there will be complimentary hors d'oeuvres, beer & wine, and a silent auction.

We hope you will support our advocacy of those wrongfully convicted, recently exonerated, and currently seeking justice.

Members of the IPNW student chapter will be selling tickets and IPNW t-shirts from a table in the law school commons on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays at 12:30 pm until the day of the show or tickets are sold out.

Student tickets: $25 // General Public: $50
Friends of IPNW: $100 // Angels: $250

MCC INTERNSHIPS
MILLENNIUM CHALLENGE CORPORATION

In March 2002 in Monterrey, Mexico, President Bush called for a "new compact for global development," which links greater contributions from developed nations to greater responsibility from developing nations. The President proposed a concrete mechanism to implement this compact -- the Millennium Challenge Account (MCA) - in which development assistance would be provided to those countries that rule justly, invest in their people, and encourage economic freedom. With strong bipartisan support, the Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC) was established on January 23, 2004 to administer the MCA.

Congress provided nearly $1 billion in initial funding for FY04 and $1.5 billion for FY05. The President has requested $3 billion for FY06 and pledged to increase annual funding for the MCA to $5 billion in the future.

The MCA draws on lessons learned about development over the past 50 years:
- Aid is most effective when it reinforces sound political, economic and social policies - which are key to encouraging the inflows of private capital and increased trade - the real engines of economic growth;
- Development plans supported by a broad range of stakeholders, and for which countries have primary responsibility, engender country ownership and are more likely to succeed;
- Integrating monitoring and evaluation into the design of activities boosts effectiveness, accountability, and the transparency with which taxpayer resources are used.

Applications for Summer 2006 will be due by close of business on March 17, 2006. Candidates initially selected for interviews will be notified by April 28, 2006.

For more information, please see http://www.mca.gov/opportunities/internships/index.shtml.
RULE OF LAW EFFECTIVENESS PROJECT

The Rule of Law Effectiveness (ROLE) Project is a three-year USAID funded project which seeks to contribute to USAID's Strategic Objective of "Governance of Economic, Democratic and Legal Systems Improved." To accomplish this ROLE will provide technical assistance to support the Government of the Philippines' (GRP) anticorruption activities and justice system reform with a view to fostering sustainable economic growth and enhancement of the competitiveness of the Philippine economy by encouraging international and domestic investment through improvement in the business climate and enhancement of the rule of law.

ROLE is sponsoring a summer internship for two US law students who have completed their second year of law studies. The interns will be carefully selected to match their skills with the needs of the program. The intern's research and writing skills will be particularly valuable to the project. The interns will work with ROLE project staff on selected tasks appropriate to their talents and skills. Due to the breadth and depth of the ROLE program there are a number of areas where the interns can support ROLE's small professional staff.

The internship will run from May 28 to July 28. Once the internship begins we are not able to change the dates as ROLE expects the interns to share a two-bedroom apartment for the 9-week internship. Interns will be expected to follow the direction of ROLE senior staff and work a minimum standard 40-hour week while in the Philippines. All work will be in Manila and there will not be any paid travel outside of Manila. Interns will be subject to the same personal in-country travel restrictions as USAID employees.

There are a number of possible activities that interns may be assigned to researching and writing the following studies:

- Plan to establish an Ombudsman Action Center.
- Unliquidated Cash Advances.
- Enforcing COA Decisions on Disallowances.
- Electronic Reporting on Tax Evasion
- Assessment on the Status of Corruption Cases in Lower Courts

ROLE will provide each intern with the following:

- Visas and evacuation insurance (students selected for the internship must show proof that they have health insurance.)
- Round-trip economy class airfare (ticket to be purchased in accordance with USAID guidelines on US carrier)
- Shared apartment
- Living allowance of $200 per week

Interested students who have completed their second year of law school should send their resume, unofficial transcripts and a cover letter explaining their interest in working with ROLE to:

James L. Agee
Chief of Party
Rule of Law Effectiveness (ROLE)
88 Corporate Center, Suite 3004
141 Valero St.
Salcedo Village, Makati 1227
Tel: (632) 729-0575 to 78 loc. 1
Fax: (632) 729-0570
jagee@role-msi.org.ph

All applications must be received by 15 March 2006 to be considered. Those selected for the internship will be notified by 31 March 2005.

This internship activity and conditions described above are subject to final approval by USAID - Philippines.
