AUTUMN QUARTER GRADES

Faculty will be submitting their grades during the first two weeks of the quarter. They will be processed and the grades posted as follows:

1L Scores: 1Ls will receive an “N” on their transcripts (indicating satisfactory progress in a continuing quarter course). Scores from your exams will be displayed on your adjusted schedule when they are available. (They will be combined with scores from the Winter exams to determine your course grade.)

Grades for Other Students: Grades for classes that are completed at the end of the Autumn Quarter will be processed as received and sent to Schmitz Hall for posting to transcripts. Continuing quarter courses will have an “N” noted on the transcript record.

Distribution Book: A distribution of grades report is prepared for any graded class with an enrollment of over 15 students. These reports are kept in a binder that can be seen at Academic Services, room 361.

ADD/DROP PERIOD

Students can add and drop classes through the first week of classes of each quarter without a change fee. Add codes are needed to register. Students wanting a class not on their adjusted schedule need to request the course on their adjusted schedule “new course request” section.

During the second week, there is a $20 charge for any day that a student makes a change to their schedule. All registration for law classes needs to be completed by January 12th. Any drops past this date will be indicated on the transcript with a “W.”

WINTER QUARTER EXAM SCHEDULE

The Winter Quarter 2007 exam schedule is now available to view online via the link at

WELCOME BACK

The librarians and staff of the Gallagher Law Library welcome you back to Gates Hall. We hope that you enjoyed the holidays with your family and friends.

Here are some quick reminders about a few of the Law Library’s services:

Contact the reference librarians in the office on L1, by phone at (206) 543-7672, or by email at lawrefst@u.

Renew books that you have checked out or place holds on books that other users have checked out by viewing your Library Account. Go to https://marian.law.washington.edu/patroninfo and type your name and barcode (found on the back of your Husky card).

Meet with classmates in one of the Group Study Rooms on L2, the lower level of the Library. Swipe your Husky card to open the door. Your Husky card also provides you access to the Library 30 minutes before the normal opening time and to the Law Student Lounge on L1, where you may enjoy your lunch or a snack.

Explore legal research databases and guides by beginning at the Law Library website, http://lib.law.washington.edu/. Connect directly to commercial legal databases by using the pull-down feature under the heading “Find Legal Databases.” Look for subject groupings of research guides under the heading “Conduct Research.”

Watch for information about a new service that will enable you to quickly determine online availability of law reviews – coming later this month.

SEEKING NEW FLAVOR IDEAS FOR LIBRARY LIFESAVERS

The reference cooks are sifting through recipes for Library Lifesaver offerings. We want to know what you—our customers—would like to see on the menu.

Last quarter, we served tasty tidbits on using the Law Library catalog, selected legal research databases, Google, Word, exams, and CALI. These are some of the treats that we wanted to share with you.

Now it is your turn! What would you like?

Perhaps you would like to order some comfort food (a review of Lexis or Westlaw basics) or an exotic delicacy (English language translations of foreign cases). Maybe you would like to request an appetizer (an introduction to an interdisciplinary database) or a seven-course meal (a series of short sessions exploring Bluebook citation rules).

We are here to slake your thirst for knowledge! Send your suggestions to lawrefst@u.

COLOR MY (RESEARCH) WORD

Teacher, why is The Bluebook blue?

Is The Bluebook related to the Government Accountability Office blue-cover reports, state-issued blue books, or the National Reporter System blue books? What is the Blue Book that tax researchers consult?

What are white papers?

What legal relevance do books of green, orange, red, maroon, and beige hold?

Look for answers to these and other research-tinted questions in this new occasional series: Color My (Research) World. Discover how colorful legal research can be and pick up some trivia to amaze and astound your friends.
